NOTE.—Of these churches, some existed under Royal Charter, or otherwise, prior to the first Convention of the Diocese in 1785. This class is denoted by the letter A, placed after the date of admission into union.

A few others seem to have been admitted by the Conventions in which they respectively appeared for the first time by their delegates, although mention of the admission seems to have been omitted by the Journal. Such are designated by the letter B.

The few incorporated under the law of April 13, 1854, are marked by the letter C.

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE INCORPORATION AND ADMISSION OF CHURCHES.

The Committee respectfully report that they have received from the Secretary of this Convention an application for admission to it from the Ascension Memorial Church, of New York City ; that said application, made in due form, was accompanied by all of the papers required by canon, which upon examination were found correct. The application was also accompanied by the written approval of the Bishop of the Diocese.

All canonical requirements having been fulfilled, your Committee would therefore recommend that the Ascension Memorial Church, of New York City, be admitted into union with this Convention.

The old form of blanks cannot well be adapted to the new " Religious Corporations Law of the State of New York," enacted December, 1895.

Your Committee would therefore respectfully suggest that the Secretary be authorized to prepare and publish a new set of blanks in conformity with the terms of the new law aforesaid.

GEORGE R. VAN DEWATER,
Chairman.

WILLIAM WATTS SHERMAN,
For the Committee.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Van DeWater, Ascension Memorial Church, of New York City, was admitted into union with this Convention.

The Secretary presented a certificate of Lay Delegates from the Church of St. George the Martyr, New York, which was technically defective, and moved that the defect be excused and the certificate received. This was done and the names of the delegates were called.

On motion of the Secretary a defective certificate from St. Thomas' Church, Amenia, was referred to the Committee on Credentials of Lay Delegates.

On motion of Mr. Delano C. Calvin the following resolution was adopted :

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by the Chair, whose duty it shall be to prepare the requisite blanks to be issued for the incorporation of Parishes under Article II. of Chapter 723 of the Laws of 1895, applicable to the incorporation of the Protestant Episcopal Parishes in this State, and the requisite blanks also for the changes contemplated by the Act, and that such committee be empowered to coöperate with any committee appointed by or representing any other diocese of this State, with reference to the subject, and also to procure such changes in the phraseology of the Act as shall be necessary to make its meaning clear.

The Chair appointed as such committee the Rev. John M. Chew, Mr. Delano C. Calvin, and Mr. George Zabriskie.

Aged and Infirm Clergymen.....	25	(Increase, 5.)
Widows and Orphans.....	34	(Decrease, 2.)
Life Insurance	45	(Increase, 12.)

The Trustees regret to announce the death, during the year, of Mr. Aaron Ogden, who has been Trustee and Treasurer of this fund for two years past. Acting under the authority of the charter of this corporation, the Trustees elected Mr. Robert B. Dodson as Trustee, to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Ogden's death, and he was subsequently elected as Treasurer of the Fund.

The Trustees call the special attention of the Convention to the fact that, while the amount of the annual Thanksgiving collection is decreasing, the claims upon the Widows' and Orphans' Fund and the Life Insurance Fund are increasing. The surplus in the Life Insurance Fund having been expended during the past year, the Trustees have apportioned the collections for the coming year in the proportion of two-thirds to the Widows' and Orphans' Fund and one-third to the Life Insurance Fund. This apportionment is based upon the relative amounts required for the two funds during the coming year. The amount received from the annual collections last year does not warrant the Trustees in continuing the allowances to the beneficiaries at the present rate. Neither fund has any capital to draw upon, and the Trustees can only dispense the sums received. They have, therefore, been obliged to reduce the allowances to beneficiaries, commencing with January 1, 1897, in the Widows' and Orphans' Fund to one-half of the original amounts granted, and in the Life Insurance Fund to sixty per cent. of the original amounts granted.

In their report to the Convention of 1895 the Trustees suggested that the date for the annual collections should be changed from "Thanksgiving Day" to "Christmas Day." This suggestion was favorably reported to the Convention by the committee to which it was referred, but the Convention took no action upon it. The Trustees now respectfully renew the suggestion, feeling convinced that the growing demands upon the funds in their charge cannot be properly provided for while the present method is continued.

Respectfully submitted,

On motion of the Rev. Wm. M. Grosvenor the following resolution was adopted :

Resolved, That the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen be referred to a special committee, who shall report later to this Convention in reference to the suggestions made by the Trustees.

The Chair appointed as such committee :

The Rev. W. M. Grosvenor,
The Rev. E. H. Krans, LL.D.,
Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie,
Mr. John C. Jay,
Mr. Bache McE. Whitlock.

The Secretary announced that he had received official notice from the Rev. Dr. C. L. Hutchins, Secretary of the House of Deputies, of the proposed alteration in the Book of Common Prayer, namely, the change in the Golden Numbers.

The Secretary announced that he had also received from the same source the official notification of the proposed amendments to the Constitution adopted by the General Convention of 1895.

The Secretary read a communication from Mr. John H. Cole, Secretary of the Church Club, tendering the use of the Club rooms to the members of the Convention.

The House then took a recess for one hour.

On reassembling, the Rev. Geo. F. Nelson, D.D., Superintendent of the New York City Mission Society, presented and read the following report :

Report

OF THE NEW YORK PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY FOR THE YEAR ENDING SEPTEMBER 15, 1896.

A review of the past twelve months is first of all a fresh reminder that they have been marked by the greatly deplored loss of Mr. Pomeroy P. Dickinson and Mr. Edward Leslie Tiemann.

Mr. Dickinson, as a vestryman of St. Ann's Church, was well known for his attachment and service to the Church. He was also well known for his good works in the City Mission during the sixteen years of his connection with it as a member of its Executive Committee. Until prostrated by the illness which brought his life to a close, he manifested his interest in the Society's aims not only by attending its meetings but by visiting and encouraging its missionary stations. His consciousness of his trust seemed always pervaded by a desire to use it in all healthful ways, as a full spring is pervaded by a law that makes a flowing stream. Nothing indeed was more characteristic of him than his sympathy with every wise agency for refreshing waste places in the lives of his fellowmen.

Mr. Tiemann was another Churchman of conspicuous usefulness. At the time of his sudden and lamented death he was a vestryman of St. Michael's Church, Secretary and Treasurer of the House of Rest for Consumptives, and a member of the City Mission's Executive Committee. Though his connection with our Society was measured by months instead of years, it was not too brief to let his associates see and honor the fine fitness which his experience and the graces of his character gave him for his responsible office.

Our staff of clergy has undergone some changes during the past year. The Rev. Robert Rogers, Ph.D., who had made an excellent record during his two years' service at the House of Refuge on Randall's Island, where he exercised an influence of rare power in the reformation of boys, resigned the chaplaincy of that institution, January 1, 1896, in order to accept a call to parochial duties in Brooklyn. At the same time the Rev. C. W. DeLyon Nichols, after faithful work for some years at the Metropolitan Hospital on Blackwell's Island, the New York Home for Convalescents, and elsewhere, terminated his connection with this Society. The Rev. T. Gardiner Littell, D.D., was thereupon appointed to the vacancy caused by Mr. Nichols' resignation, and the Rev. William Lindsay, formerly Missionary to the Tombs Prison and the Ludlow Street Jail, was assigned to duty at the House of Refuge. At the same time the Rev. T. M. Sharpe, Ph.D., Missionary to the City Hospital and the Penitentiary on Blackwell's Island, and the Rev. Hugh Maguire, Minister in Charge of the Chapel of the Messiah, were asked to exchange places. The Superintendent of the Society acted as Chaplain of the Tombs Prison and the Ludlow Street Jail for five months till relieved by the Rev. Floyd Appleton, appointed June 1st to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Lindsay's transfer to the chaplaincy of the House of Refuge.

The Society's roll has included fourteen regularly employed clergymen for the greater part of the year, and two deaconesses. It has also included nine clergymen and eight lay readers on temporary duty during the summer months and at other times.

In expectation of the need of a larger staff of missionaries we are much encouraged by a welcome offer, recently made by the Rector of Grace Church, of the services of two or three deacons for Sunday duty during the coming season without cost to the Society.

We are gratefully indebted to St. Luke's Hospital for a considerable quantity of ecclesiastical furniture formerly in use in its chapel, and to the New York Bible and Common Prayer Book Society for continued favors.

The two annual meetings of the City Mission Society, attended by large congregations, were held at St. Agnes' Chapel and the Church of the Incarnation, November 24th and December 22d respectively. The Bishop of the Diocese presided and delivered an address at each meeting. Other addresses were made at the first by Commissioner Faure, at the second by President Low of Columbia College, and at both meetings by the Superintendent of the Society and by its General Agent. Each address was an earnest plea in behalf of the City Mission.

It is a matter of profound thankfulness that the generous support which the Society has continued to receive has enabled it to carry on its varied work not merely with undiminished but increasing activity, and with every sign of widening usefulness.

The Treasurer reports that the receipts from all sources during the year from September 17, 1895, to September 15, 1896, amounted to $58,190.10. Of this sum he received $20,094.36 from church collections, including the annual grant from the Corporation of Trinity Parish; $13,076.78 directly from individual contributors; $12,764.80 from legacies; $8,054.69 from rents and as dividends and interest on investments, together with $1,591.49 contributed for Thanksgiving and Christmas and other festivals; $1,557.80 specially contributed for Fresh Air, and $1,080.90 as receipts on account of the Mission News of the Archdeaconry.

The names of the legators and the amounts received from their respective bequests are as follows, viz.:

Benjamin S. Lee, on account of balance of a legacy, $110.

The Rev. John Blake, on account of one-third interest in his residuary estate, $7,654.08.

Miss Phoebe Pearsall, $5,000.

In accordance with authority from the Society, the Treasurer transferred to the Archdeaconry of New York $325.50 to be applied toward providing services in the Spanish language at the Church of Santiago or elsewhere, and $300 for expenditure by the Archdeacon toward the support of the Mission to Colored People in the northern part of the city.

Like parochial organizations at work in mission districts, our Society comes into contact with some of the worst phases of poverty, ignorance, and moral perversity. Its missionaries almost daily encounter the vagrancy that settles down to begging as a trade with no sign of any purpose but to exist without work. They are often reminded of the startling connection that exists between heredity or a bad environment and the overflow of asylums and jails. They see in their walks a naturalized citizenship that is alien in spirit, and a heathenism which the light of religion seems never to have touched. But their experience has a brighter side. They find that a vast majority of the poor people among whom they go are not lacking in good motives or self-reliance. Certainly most of the families represented at our chapels and mission houses earn their bread, or try to earn it, by honest toil, and show themselves willing to learn to be wiser and better.

The Chapel of the Messiah, erected some years ago by his daughters as a memorial to the late Thomas B. Coddington, Esq., for many years a vestryman of Grace Church, has a fortunate situation. The tenement houses in 95th Street near the chapel are comparatively new and of better construction than one sees as a rule in older tenement-house districts. The families that occupy them represent for the most part a better type of intelligence and thrift than we find in the neighborhood of our down-town stations. A good share of these families are on the Chapel register. They have given proof of their interest by a good attendance at the services and by putting up iron gates in front of the edifice at a cost of $92. Their Easter offering was $68. A chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, organized last winter, is composed of young men of earnest spirit, who are doing much to strengthen the pastor's hands. The Daughters of the King contributed $53.50 during the past year for Chapel expenses. The valuable work of the Mothers' Meeting has been sustained by a generous gift of $100 from the City Committee of Grace Church for the purchase of clothing materials for destitute children. The same committee placed us under further obligations by laying a new carpet in the pastor's study at the Chapel and by providing a fund of $120 for the employment at different times of two district visitors of whose diligence and worth we cannot speak too highly.

St. Ambrose's Church, at the corner of Thompson and Prince Streets, stands in a neighborhood well adapted to missionary work among Italians, but unfavorable to the growth of an English-speaking congregation. A tide of Italian families had already set in there when the Church, having long ceased to be self-supporting, was transferred to the City Mission, and the tide has steadily increased till that quarter seems a little Italy. If the extension of Elm Street to Lafayette Place, now thought probable, results in pulling down the edifice of the Italian Mission in Mulberry Street, as its western end stands on the ground of the proposed new street, the question of transferring the congregation of the Church of San Salvatore to St. Ambrose's Church and providing another spiritual home for the people of St. Ambrose's will, we trust, be duly considered by those on whom the responsibility of action will rest. The unfavorable situation, however, has not prevented our missionary at St. Ambrose's Church and his lay helpers from doing a very commendable work. The last confirmation class, largely composed of adults, was pronounced by the Bishop of the Diocese the most interesting, in many respects, that he had ever confirmed at St. Ambrose's Church. It is a noteworthy fact, which we are glad to record, that the poor people there have shown their love for this House of Prayer by contributing during the past year $210 for improvements in the chancel, and $135 for a bell and belfry, without diminishing their offerings at Sunday services. The Sunday-school, about one-half of the children of which are of Italian parentage, St. Andrew's Brotherhood, the Guild of St. Monica, the Kindergarten and the Industrial School, have all given abundant signs of industry and progress.

The Church of San Salvatore, transferred to the City Mission Society in 1894, has continued to thrive. It is more difficult to find teachers for the children of the Italian Sunday-school—though a knowledge of Italian is not necessary—than for similar classes elsewhere. But the teachers we have are faithful, and they are certainly doing a valuable service. It is particularly noticeable not only that the Sunday congregations are large—the sexes seated separately, on opposite sides of the main aisle—but that they are largely composed of adults, of whom the men seem often to be more numerous than the women. And even if any stranger present does not understand Italian, he can scarcely fail to be impressed by the heartiness with which the worshippers lift up their voices in the responses and hymns. The Day Nursery, the Kindergarten, and the Industrial School at God's Providence Mission include children from the Italian Mission. Connected with the Church of San Salvatore is a club called "Adopted Sons of America," its special aim being to teach its members to be well-informed and loyal citizens of their adopted country. Would that we had many more such clubs for men from foreign shores on their way to the polls to make our laws!

St. Barnabas' Chapel, facing the Church of San Salvatore, has continued to draw a large part of its congregation at its daily services from the adjoining mission house of the same name. Nearly all the families in the neighborhood are either identified with our Italian Mission, or claiming to be Roman Catholic, or else they are of a foreign class, too ignorant of our language and too indifferent to religion to value Church services of any kind, much less those in the English tongue. The household of St. Barnabas' House numbers about ninety-five. All but about ten of these are homeless women and children temporarily sheltered there, and a large proportion of them, with the staff of workers at the House, usually attend the Chapel services in a body. Some of the children compose the choir. They are selected from the number whose sojourn lasts three or four weeks, and they usually prove apt pupils. All the children, except those who are too young to receive instruction, attend the Sunday-school. The entire staff of clergy, and a few others of the City Mission, meet together at a monthly Communion Service at the Chapel, at which an appropriate missionary address is delivered; and we have been favored at these services by the ministrations of a number of reverend visitors from city parishes.

St. Barnabas' Free Reading Room, at No. 38 Bleecker Street, where an abundance of books and periodicals is kept on the shelves and tables, has been made use of by a goodly number of men and boys during the past year, particularly on winter evenings.

In the same building a library for the use of our missionaries has been founded by Prof. Thomas Egleston, by his generous gift of many valuable books.

St. Barnabas' House has added another fruitful year to its long record of benevolence. Its work, however, has been much simplified by the transfer of its Day Nursery and Kindergarten to God's Providence Mission. In consequence of this important change, we have been able to provide a temporary home for a largely increased number of women and children. Many of these beneficiaries are mothers with babes seeking in St. Barnabas' House a refuge from the hardships of a homeless and penniless poverty, and it is gratifying to know that the accommodations of the House are now available on a larger scale than ever before for such objects of charity. The number who are thus our transient guests varies from forty to fifty women and from thirty to forty children. The plan which seeks to befriend them in their destitution and distress involves not only a temporary relief in the matter of lodging and food, but an effort to find suitable employment for such of the women as are capable of work. Nowhere in New York, perhaps, do more pathetic instances of friendlessness and penury, clutching at human pity to keep from despair, come to light than at St. Barnabas' House; and though, with all due economy, our expenses there amounted last year to about $11,000, including about $950 for repairs, and including, also, the cost of meals served from St. Barnabas' House in the Day Nursery at God's Providence Mission, or about one-fifth of the annual outlay for the City Mission's entire work, we are sure that the results have justified all their cost. In accordance with a recent agreement with the Health Department, an arrangement has been made by which any beneficiary attacked by a contagious disease can be quarantined at the House, and thus be spared the danger of transportation to North Brother's Island or elsewhere. The strong and gentle administration of Miss Mather, the deaconess in charge, makes the House at all times a home of orderliness and comfort, both for her helpers and for the waifs of childhood and womanhood that drift across its threshold. To Mrs. Bowdoin, the President of the Board of Visitors, and to her associates, we are much indebted for their personal coöperation and wise counsel at many times and in many ways. It is not too much to say that they have been a tower of strength to every department of the work.

The chapel at God's Providence Mission was consecrated November 5, 1895, by the Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Archdeacon, Rev. Dr. Tiffany, the Rev. Morgan Dix, D.D., the Rev. Brockholst Morgan, and other clergy. Many of the city clergy and laity, by their presence in the congregation, manifested their interest in the occasion and their sympathy with our work. It is well known that this Mission, standing in one of the most populous tenement-house districts of the city, had already become a centre of large influence, especially for the child life of the neighborhood; but since the consecration some new branches of the Mission's beneficence have developed, and the old ones have largely increased. On Sundays we have a Sunday-school and Evening Prayer with a sermon. On week days the order of work includes a Day Nursery, Kindergarten, Industrial School, Italian Mothers' Meeting, German (English-speaking) Mothers' Meeting, Girls' Friendly Society, Cooking School, Russian class for lessons in English, boys' and young men's clubs, girls' shorthand class, Penny Provident Fund, and a circulating library. The Italian Mothers' Meeting is generously maintained by Mrs. Browning at her own expense, and the Cooking School owes its beginning and continuance to a similar kindness on the part of Mrs. Bronson. Mrs. Percy R. Pyne, to whose thoughtful and liberal charity we are indebted for the gift of the building itself and for the ground on which it stands, has met a recent want by putting up book-cases in the large front room for the books of the circulating library. The varied usefulness of God's Providence Mission has been due to many faithful workers, but chiefly to Miss Mather, deaconess, Miss Phelps, deaconess, Mrs. Foster, the Superintendent of the Industrial School, and Miss Duncan, the Superintendent of the Kindergarten. We regret to say that Miss Phelps has just terminated her connection with our Society, after a year of service conspicuous for its fidelity to every duty, and for its loving helpfulness to the poor. To the more genial climate in the South, in which her new work lies, the thoughts of many children of poverty will follow her with thankfulness that they have seen the light of her face and felt the touch of her hand.

The Thanksgiving and Christmas festivals which kind gifts in response to our annual appeal enabled us to give at God's Providence Mission, St. Barnabas' House, and many other mission stations in the city and on the Islands, were enjoyable and edifying occasions, of which, doubtless, many a child of want and suffering still thinks with something like an echo of the Psalmist's thought, "I call to remembrance my song in the night."

The Fresh-air Fund, as no one need be told, has rarely ever had such a season of urgent appeals for relief from the city's oppressive heat as that of the past summer; and we are thankful that the City Mission has been enabled to do its share in the administration of so gracious a charity. In addition to sending about four thousand excursionists on steamboats and barges to groves on the Sound, we have had the privilege of sending a large number of beneficiaries—mostly children—to the Fresh-air Home of the Church of the Reconciliation at Lake Mohican, the Fresh-air Home of the Church of the Heavenly Rest at Copake Iron Works, and other places in the country, for a sojourn of two or three weeks. The Tribune Fresh-air Fund, the Children's Aid Society, the Home of the Christian Herald, the Martha Home near Sing Sing, and the Floating Hospital of St. John's Guild have kindly aided our Fund by giving us the benefit of their summer shelters for many others from tenement-house districts.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Church Temperance Society has done no little to mitigate the severities of summer for our poor people by putting up drinking fountains at the Chapel of the Messiah, the Church of San Salvatore, St. Ambrose's Church, and God's Providence Mission.

Our missionary stations at public institutions during the past year have included the City Hospital, the Metropolitan Hospital, the Almshouse and the adjoining Chapel of the Good Shepherd, the Workhouse and the Penitentiary on Blackwell's Island, the Asylum for the Insane on Ward's Island, the House of Refuge, the Children's Hospital, and the School for the Feeble-minded on Randall's Island, the Manhattan State Hospital for the Insane on Hart's Island, Bellevue Hospital and the adjoining Chapel of Christ the Consoler, the Harlem Reception Hospital, Gouverneur Hospital, the Nursery and Child's Hospital, the New York Home for Convalescents, the New York Infant Asylum, and the Home for Colored People, the House of Detention for Witnesses, the City Prison, called "The Tombs," the County Jail, called "Ludlow Street Jail," and Jefferson Market, Essex Market, Yorkville, Harlem, and Fordham Prisons. At all these stations our missionaries have conducted religious services every week, using the Book of Common Prayer in some places, especially at chapels connected with institutions, and at others a printed order of service in the form of a leaflet, prepared for the purpose under the sanction of the Ordinary of the Diocese. At some of these places it is not practicable to hold services oftener than once a week, but at the Chapel of the Good Shepherd there are daily services, and they are well attended by men and women from the Almshouse. At Bellevue Hospital there are five services a week in the Chapel of Christ the Consoler. At the Tombs Prison there are four, and at the Ludlow Street Jail two services a week. But important as it is for the missionary to minister in the congregation, and sound out the Word of the Lord in Scripture reading and exhortation, it is plain that his usefulness largely depends upon the pastoral relation of sympathy and helpfulness which he establishes with individuals. No one knows this better than the missionary himself, but none the less we make it a rule to see that he is in no danger of forgetting it.

The separation of the Department of Public Charities from the Department of Correction, which went into effect January 1, 1896, has made no change in the system of our work in public institutions, but the division of such large and dissimilar responsibilities of the city government is one which must commend itself to every thoughtful citizen as a wise measure. We are glad to bear witness to the active and sympathetic interest with which the Commissioners of the old Board and of the new Boards have cheered our mission.

We have been cheered also by many tokens of earnest coöperation from other quarters. St. Elizabeth's Guild has continued to give inmates of the Almshouse a feast of good things on Thanksgiving Day and Christmas, and at other times to remember them—particularly the sick and the aged—with varied marks of kindness. Some twenty-five parishioners of both sexes from Grace-Emmanuel Church have consecrated their Sunday mornings to teaching classes of young people whose feeble minds have made them charity's wards on Randall's Island. Volunteer choirs from St. Andrew's Parish and Holy Trinity Parish, Harlem, and from other city parishes, have sung three Sundays of every month at the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, and thus helped in no small degree to lift up the hearts of large congregations from the Almshouse. Not a few ladies and gentlemen, acting under the direction of the Archdeacon of New York, particularly those from Calvary Parish, have continued their weekly labor of love in visiting prisoners at the Tombs Prison and in joining in the two Sunday services conducted by our chaplain. Bands of volunteers, belonging to the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, have continued to meet once a week at the office of Mr. John Seely Ward, Jr., and then go out on errands of pity to hospitals and prisons. The Prison Guild has helped to provide choice vocal and instrumental music for our religious services on Sundays and week days at the Tombs Prison and Ludlow Street Jail. It has also given to women at the Tombs Prison, by the Warden's permission, the boon of an opportunity to engage in sewing, to temper their wretchedness and relieve their own or some fellow-prisoner's necessities so far as decent apparel can relieve them.

It would not surprise anyone who knew Mrs. Wynkoop, the founder and first president of the Prison Guild, to be told that the tidings of her sudden death last spring were received with a deep sense of bereavement by those of us whose privilege it had often been to see her, like light in a dark place, lingering in some prison corridor, before its iron doors, to reach caged souls within with some kindly message. Nor need we add that we shall not soon forget how much we owe to her rare example.

The summary of the Society's work, attached to this report, is as near an approach to a full exhibit of what has been accomplished during the past year as can well be made in a tabular statement. This summary shows that our missionaries ministered at 4,440 religious services, with an aggregate attendance of 294,228—that is to say, an average weekly congregation of 5,658; that they ministered the Holy Communion 376 times in public and 355 times in private; that the total number of those who received the Holy Communion was 7,937, though this number would be much smaller if those who received the Holy Communion more than once during the year were counted only once, instead of being counted as often as they communicated; that they have baptized 478 children and 106 adults, presented 233 candidates for confirmation, solemnized 35 marriages, officiated at 202 funerals, and made 56,972 visits, this including special visits to, and personal conversation with, inmates of hospitals, asylums, and prisons.

It has been said that "no man's imagination was ever vitally impressed by figures." It is not expected that these figures will disprove that statement. Such merely numerical reports of results never carry their full meaning on the surface. But they show at least what a wide battle-line the City Mission has formed in front of forces arrayed against righteousness and peace in this great city, even if they do not show the hand-to-hand struggle that tells of victory here and there for the Church, and of blessing for those whom she wins to her ways.

Details of baptisms and confirmations at chapels and institutions are as follows:

	Baptized.		Confirmed.
	Infants.	Adults.

In recalling these confirmation classes and the impressions which they gave those of us who stood beside them when they received the laying on of hands, we have good reason to believe that each presenter had been true to his trust by taking heed not alone to the importance of giving his candidates a painstaking and thorough course of instruction to illumine their minds, but also to the importance of giving them, under the divine blessing, a right preparation of the heart. And it is a significant fact, which shows something of what the City Mission is doing to prove its title to its name, that most of these two hundred and thirty-three candidates at the time of their confirmation were wrinkled men and women from the Almshouse, or boys and girls whose waywardness had led them to the reformatory, or others whose feebleness and friendlessness had made them charges on the public care. And if this is some sign that missionary activity has wrought a good work for the Master, where the harvest is indeed plenteous and the laborers are few, there are other signs which only the missionary sees, and which, full of encouragement as they may be, cannot be set down in a table of statistics any more than a flash of light can be described by an array of figures. It is the experience of every one of our missionaries to hospitals for the sick, shelters for the poor and decrepit, asylums for unfortunates of unbalanced mind, reformatories for the young of unruly mood, workhouses and prisons for law-breakers of many kinds, that under the most unpromising appearances he has often found a genuine responsiveness to the Gospel's call as truly as a magnet moving among metal filings finds its own even in a mass of dirt. The gifted writer who refers in one of his books to "that fancy of Plato's of a man who had grown to maturity in some dark distance, and was brought on a sudden into the upper air to see the sun rise," may justly suggest to us by such a thought something that is not a fancy but a fact in the work of our City Mission Society. Who shall undertake to estimate not alone the number of children and others that the pastors and teachers at our chapels and mission houses have led out of darkness into light, but the number of men and women who have grown to maturity in vicious ignorance—that darkest of all dark distances—and opened their spiritual eyes for the first time, perhaps, in some asylum ward or prison cell to see the beauty of holiness? Certainly much good is done, and whether the results are plain to human view or sometimes hidden from it, the work is Christ's and the call to do it is His.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE F. NELSON,
Superintendent.

SEPTEMBER 16, 1895.

TO

SEPTEMBER 15, 1896.

The Rev. Dr. Bradley offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That this Convention accepts the report of the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, which has just been presented, and hereby places on record its fullest sympathy with the Society's aims, and its deep sense of the responsibility which rests on all the clergy and laity of the Diocese and on every good citizen to encourage and support the Society's work.

The Rev. Dr. Fairbairn presented the following report :

Report

OF ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE.

The undersigned, in behalf of the Trustees of St. Stephen's College, begs to submit the following report :

The College has been in successful operation the past year, with the usual number of students. Of the seventy young men who have been in attendance, all but two or three have joined us for the purpose of studying for holy orders. The number of those who have received their classical education in whole or in part, and who are now employed in the active work of the ministry, is about three hundred.

There is now a number of zealous young men who are faithfully attending to their duties in the College, and are also doing work in the neighborhood as lay readers and Sunday-school teachers. Their work, with that of the professors, is making the College a centre of religious influence. That work thus becomes an education, and leaves an influence on the character of these young men which will be felt when they shall have entered on the active work of the holy ministry.

Notwithstanding the great changes which have taken place in the character of collegiate education in the past thirty years, St. Stephen's still maintains a course of education which we hold is the best course for one who is to go from us to a theological school. Young men here are trained in the ancient languages, and in those sciences which are best fitted to form the mind and to fit the student for the intellectual duties of the sacred office. One of the Bishops of the Church, lately recognizing this, wrote to me : " I would like to have my men educated at St. Stephen's, on account of the course which you have. I am sorry that I have not appreciated before the value of your course." The old curriculum, in a large measure, continues to be the curriculum at St. Stephen's. The young men are trained thoroughly in the Greek Testament and in rhetoric and logic, and in the science of ethics and of the mind. In these subjects there is no choice allowed. That is the training which every one who exercises the ministry of preaching, as the French Bishop Dupanloup terms it, and the office of the cure of souls requires. They require the knowledge of the human soul and the manner of dealing with the intellectual and moral nature ; and they require a knowledge of the Greek of the New Testament, that they may know what is Christian revelation.

Two years ago a resolution was adopted by the Convention recommending a collection to be made for the benefit of the College. Only two or three parishes complied with the request. From the rest we have not heard. We have, of course, received in the past ten years some magnificent gifts. Possibly the College would not have been in existence to-day had we not been so generously dealt with. But it will require a hundred thousand dollars to establish us on such a foundation that we can pay the annual demands on us without borrowing at the bank. The Legislature, to protect the colleges of this State, has defined a college to be an institution of learning in which there are at least six professors exercising the functions of their office. We have five, and two instructors and one lecturer. Could our debt be paid, and the money which is required for interest be thus set free, we should be able to fulfil the requirements of the Legislature and to do the work with more ease and more success. There is still the opportunity to carry out the resolution of the Convention, and to do a great benefit to St. Stephen's College.

R. B. FAIRBAIRN,

Warden.

The Rev. Dr. Humphreys presented the following report :

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PAROCHIAL FUND.

The Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York beg leave to report that the funds intrusted to their care and the appropriations therefrom have been substantially as in other years.

In the endeavor to provide a more suitable support for some of the faithful, deserving, but underpaid clergymen in the diocese they have extended to five clergymen such help as they felt warranted from the limited income at their disposal.

A detailed account of the amounts of these funds and the nature of their investment, as well as the appropriations made from them, will appear in the Treasurer's Report herewith appended.

The resignation of the Rev. Dr. Seabury, who had served this Board so long and so faithfully as its Secretary, was accepted with great regret. Suitable resolutions were adopted, and ordered to be placed upon the minutes of the Board, of their grateful sense of his faithful service and their sincere regret at the loss of his valued help and counsel.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

F. LANDON HUMPHREYS,

Secretary.

The receipts from assessments during the year have been sufficient to meet the deficiency in the income of the fund for the Bishop's salary, but, no additions having been made to the capital of the fund during the year, the same assessment will be necessary for the deficiency of the year ending September, 1897. The Trustees therefore recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund be, and they are hereby, authorized to assess the parishes of the diocese at the rate of one per cent. upon the salaries paid to the clergy, for the purpose of raising the moneys needed for the Episcopal Fund, in lieu of the collections provided for by Canon.

with forms of such certificates, namely, four forms numbered 1, 2, 3, and 4 respectively, No. 1 being that required by Section 31, No. 2 being that required by Section 34, No. 3 being that required by Section 35, and No. 4 being that required by Section 36 of Article II. of the Act of the Legislature passed May 25, 1895, to take effect October 1, 1895, entitled "An Act in Relation to Religious Corporations, constituting Chapter 42 of the General Laws of the State of New York."

The Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution :

Resolved, That the report of the Committee appointed at the last Convention to consider the drafting of forms of certificates required by the amended laws of the State of New York governing the incorporation of churches be accepted, and the forms of certificates presented by this Committee approved, and such certificates remitted to such Committee with power to direct that the same be printed and distributed for use in the Diocese after such correction, if any, as may prove requisite to make them more precisely conform to the provisions for the incorporation and government of Protestant Episcopal Parishes and Churches contained in the Act of 1895 known as the Act in Relation to Religious Corporations, constituting Chapter 42 of the General Laws of this State.

JOHN MARSHALL CHEW, Chairman.

GEO. MACCULLOCH MILLER.

THOS. R. HARRIS.

Dated, NEW YORK, September 30, 1896.

On motion, the resolution recommended by the committee was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Delano C. Calvin the committee was continued, with instructions to confer with the new committee appointed on a similar subject this morning.

The Rev. Chas. F. Canedy, D.D., read the following communication :

To the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of New York and to the Clerical and Lay Delegates of the Convention of the Diocese of New York.

The undersigned members of the Diocese of New York beg leave to call your attention to a brief statement of facts, and to ask the adoption of the resolutions appended.

In response to a letter from the Bishop of New York the Rev. Drs. Greer, Van DeWater, Bradley, and McGrew, and Mr. John W. Wood assembled as a committee on April 21, 1896, to consider a project for the formation of a Church Army, or similar organization, along the lines followed by the Church of England Army, as proposed by Col. H. H. Hadley, Superintendent of the Rescue Mission of St. Bartholomew's Church, New York.

This Committee resolved to refer the whole subject to the Parochial Missions Society for the United States, of which the Bishop of New York is President. That Society named a special committee, who considered the plan in detail as proposed, and, after suggesting various modifications, reported the amended scheme to a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Society at its office on May 5th, at which the President of the Society presided. The following resolutions were adopted :

Resolved, That this Committee begs to express its cordial sympathy with some such experimental test of the value of the Church Army methods as may be undertaken under the auspices of the Rector of St. Bartholomew's Church, and along the lines proposed in the Report of the Committee.

And, after further discussion, it was—

Resolved, That the whole subject of the Church Army be referred to a committee consisting of both committees already appointed—the Committee of the Parochial Missions Society and the Committee appointed by the Bishop, together with such clergy and laity as they may see fit to call to their counsel—this Committee to report at the Diocesan Convention.

At the same meeting the special Committee of the Parochial Missions Society was named. The Joint Committee was enlarged to include the Rev. Drs. Rainsford, Walpole Warren, Grant, Canedy, and Kinsolving, and Mr. Robert Graham. At a meeting of the Joint Committee, held at St. Bartholomew's Parish House by the courtesy of the Rector, on May 27th, when the scheme prepared by Colonel Hadley was again taken up and considered in detail—

It was moved, That the Committee hereby authorize the publication of the pamphlet annexed for the temporary guidance of Colonel Hadley in doing such tentative work as will enable the Committee to report favorably, or otherwise, on the Church Army scheme at the Diocesan Convention of the Diocese of New York in September, 1896. This was carried.

It was further—

Resolved, That Colonel Hadley be appointed Military Director of the United States Church Army, until the next meeting of the Diocesan Convention.

Resolved, That the Military Director be requested to report in writing to the Secretary of the Parochial Missions Society at least once every fortnight between now and the time of the meeting of the Diocesan Convention. Said report to include all work attempted, accomplished, or planned, and the progress made.

The pamphlet to which reference is made declares that the object of the United States Church Army is, "To win and save souls; add them to the Church; multiply the Rector's facilities for doing all needed kinds of missionary and rescue work, and provide, by training, suitable workers to carry out the methods adopted."

"The PRINCIPLES" are defined as, "Loyalty to Christ and His Church, deprecating and, so far as possible, counteracting methods which refer to the Church and her sacraments as non-essential to or unnecessary for salvation."

Under the title, "Authority and Executive," is the following paragraph : "The Church, as represented by her Rector in the parish where there is a United States Church Army Post, shall have direction of the religious teachings and methods of the United States Army in his parish." And under "Army Direction" it is asserted: "All matters pertaining to the military direction and control of the United States Church Army shall be under the command and supervision of a layman of the Church, who shall be designated Military Director and shall appoint his own assistants and personal staff.

"He shall prepare and adopt rules and regulations for the government of the United States Church Army, issue all general and special orders, and decide all matters of discipline, placing or removal of troops, starting of posts, formation of companies, selection of uniforms and tactics, and control all publications: guided at all times by the advice and counsel of the Church."

Under "Rules and Regulations," "The Rector's Relation to the Army" is defined as follows: "No Post shall be established or continued in any parish without the written consent of the Rector thereof, and when established he shall control it, subject to the United States Church Army Rules and Regulations. Before the Post is established a written agreement shall be made between the Rector and the Military Director as to all details."

So much for the tentative aims and methods.

Fortnightly reports to date have been received from the Military Director, giving (1) interesting particulars of a visit to England and participation in the work of the Church of England Army, which has happily proved itself the pioneer in all useful and beneficent methods of reaching the religiously indifferent and hostile, the helpless and needy, and the outcasts of city and country; (2) giving details of largely attended tent services on the beach at Asbury Park, N. J., held by the written consent of the Rector of the Parish; (3) of conferences with several of the clergy and laity of Philadelphia and other cities in regard to opportunities for work; (4) of encouraging sums of money subscribed; and (5) of plans for the future.

The Joint Committee believes that too short a period has elapsed, especially in view of the season of the year, to fully test the value of this new organization. There has been, according to all testimony, an evident blessing upon the work during the summer. Initial difficulties and discouragements have been bravely conquered.

It seems to the Committee that the particular kind of evangelistic work contemplated by the plan herewith submitted involves an organization that must be general and not merely diocesan. Even what has already been accomplished, as reported to the Parochial Missions Society, has touched the Dioceses of New York, Western New York, Pennsylvania, Newark, and Pittsburgh.

The Committee is convinced that such an undertaking as this now promises to be requires the constant and undivided care of a competent clerical Superintendent and a Board of Management representing the regular missionary system of the Church.

The Parochial Missions Society, as a general society, has cheerfully fostered the new organization until the date of the meeting of this Convention.

The Joint Committee is therefore constrained to ask the Parochial Missions Society for the United States to make the Church Army a distinct department of its work.

Furthermore, the Joint Committee, sympathizing as it does with every well-intentioned effort to carry the Gospel of salvation to those as yet not reached by the ordinary instrumentalities of the Church, recommends the adoption of the following resolutions :

I. Resolved, That a special committee be appointed, consisting of five clergymen and four laymen, to give, on behalf of this Diocese, subject to the approval of the Bishop and in conjunction with the Parochial Missions Society, such advice and counsel and such encouragement and aid as are within their power to the organization known as the United States Church Army.

II. Resolved, That the committee thus formed be instructed to report, in detail, to the next Convention.

III. Resolved, That this Convention hereby authorizes the further and cautious adaptation of this movement, under a Clerical Director, as a supplement to existing parochial agencies, whenever and wherever the Bishop and the Rector or Minister in Charge, acting with the advice and concurrence of the committee herewith provided for, shall deem advisable.

(Signed,)

E. A. BRADLEY.

E. WALPOLE WARREN.

C. F. CANEDY.

JOHN W. WOOD.

ROBERT GRAHAM.

On motion, the question was taken on each resolution separately, and all three were adopted.

The Chair appointed as such committee the following persons :

The Rev. Drs. Van DeWater, Parks, Greer, Canedy, and Harris ; and Messrs. Charles H. Russell, George Zabriskie, Samuel A. Blatchford, and Irving Grinnell.

The Rev. Dr. Tiffany, the Archdeacon of New York, presented the following report :

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE RELATIONS OF THE ARCHDEACONRY OF NEW YORK AND THE CITY MISSION SOCIETY.

The Committee appointed in accordance with the following resolution, adopted at the last Diocesan Convention, viz.:

Resolved, That a committee of seven be appointed to inquire into the workings of the Archdeaconry of New York and the City Mission Society, to consider their relations to one another, with a view of establishing these relations on a more satisfactory basis, and to report to the next Diocesan Convention, beg leave to report as follows :

It seems proper at the outset of this report to mention—

1. That a committee appointed by the Bishop of New York, in accordance with a resolution adopted at a meeting of the Archdeaconry of New York, May 7, 1889, to consider and report the legal objections, if any, to the consolidation or merging of the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society with the Archdeaconry of New York, reported that the legal objections to such a consolidation or merging were insuperable, (a) because the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society is an incorporated body exercising the powers, carrying on the duties, and subject to the responsibilities of trustees having a large amount of trust funds and property in its custody, and (b) because it conducts much charitable work in the City of New York not in the nature of missionary effort, and not subject to the jurisdiction or within the scope of the powers of the Archdeaconry.

2. That a committee appointed by the Bishop, in accordance with a resolution adopted at a meeting of the Archdeaconry of New York, December 1, 1890, to consider and report a plan by which the members may be brought into more close and intimate relations with the Archdeaconry work of City Missions and to the acceptance of a more definite responsibility for that which is the common cure of all the Clergy and of all Church people, and to consider and report a scheme for legally uniting and consolidating the work and corporation of the City Mission with that of the Archdeaconry of New York, reported that, on account of the fiduciary relation which the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society sustains to the donors of a large amount of property held by it in trust, a consolidation of that Society with the Archdeaconry is impracticable, and that the Committee can find no way by which the relations of the two bodies can be made more intimate except by a closer personal coöperation of the members of the Archdeaconry with the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society.

In view of the legal objections referred to in the above-mentioned reports, the Committee gave no consideration to any plan of consolidation. But one of the questions which it carefully considered was the question whether it would be likely to establish the relations of the Archdeaconry and the City Mission Society on a more satisfactory basis if the City Mission Society should transfer all its revenues to the Archdeaconry and give up its work in order to let the Archdeaconry carry it on. And the conclusion which the Committee reached was the conviction that such a plan, however free it might be from legal difficulties, would be open to equally grave objections.

The Act that incorporated the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society was passed April 9, 1833. That Act declares the objects of the Society to be, "to provide by building, purchase, hiring, or otherwise, at different points in the City of New York, churches in which seats shall be free, and mission-houses for the poor and afflicted; and also to provide suitable clergymen and other persons to act as missionaries and assistants in and about the said churches and mission-houses." For sixty-three years the Society has been engaged in doing the work for which it was incorporated. And for thirty-two years—viz., since 1864, the year in which the Mission to Public Institutions in the City of New York became a part of the City Mission Society—it has carried on missionary work in the public hospitals, asylums, and prisons of the city. As is well known, the growth of the Society's prosperity and usefulness has been large. It now has seven chapels in which it ministers to congregations of the poor, two of the chapels being connected with public institutions. It has two mission-houses and one parish house besides other houses, and a large amount of trust funds. It employs twelve or more missionaries and many more lay-helpers. It maintains religious services every week in all the hospitals and asylums that are under the direction of the Department of Public Charities: in the asylums for the insane on islands in East River, in the work-houses and prisons that are under the direction of the Department of Correction, and also in the House of Refuge for Juvenile Delinquents on Randall's Island. Its missionaries have held during the year 1894-95 4,073 services, with an aggregate attendance of 286,151. Its annual income from all sources is about $50,000.

It is reasonable to suppose that no small part of the Society's usefulness has been due to the form of its organization and the methods of its management; and it is also reasonable to suppose that the generous support of the clergy and laity, the gifts of chapels and mission-houses, and the bequests of trust funds which it has received, have been due to the confidence of its benefactors in the system of its administration. That system has had a long trial and has proved its value. It is a system that guarantees efficiency. The Bishop of the Diocese is the President of the Society. All the missionaries are nominated to him for his approval. The Executive Committee, charged with the duty of carrying on the work of the Society, is composed of the Bishop, the two clerical and two lay vice-presidents, the secretary, six elected clergymen, and twelve elected laymen. Every year the Society reports to the Diocesan Convention, and it has received many expressions of the Convention's approval.

To ask such an organization to dispense with its executive committee, to lay down the work to which it stands pledged and continue its existence simply to hold property and receive money for the Archdeaconry to use, would be to ask something which seems to be a moral if not a legal evasion of a trust. Nor does the Committee believe that the canon creating the Archdeaconry contemplates such action. Canon XVIII., Sec. 3 (II.), provides that "It shall be the duty of each Archdeaconry to search out the religious needs of its own district, and to conduct and provide for such missionary work as may be undertaken by it, within its own limits," etc. And what is meant by the words "to conduct and provide for such missionary work as may be undertaken by it, within its own limits"? Surely it does not mean that the Archdeaconry of New York fails to comply with the canon unless it carries on all the missionary work that is carried on within its limits. It does not mean that the City Mission Society, or the Church Missionary Society for Seamen, or the Church Mission to Deaf-mutes, or the Rectors and Vestries of parishes that maintain mission chapels and mission-houses should stop all their missionary work and turn over their funds to the Archdeaconry, in order that the Archdeaconry may do the work for them. The canon means simply what it says. The Archdeaconry shall "conduct and provide for such missionary work as may be undertaken by it, within its own limits." In other words, it is not required to conduct work which it does not undertake nor to undertake work for which it is unable to provide. Nor does this interpretation of the canon prevent the City Mission Society from considering itself an agency of the Archdeaconry and reporting to it, with a view to mutual coöperation and harmony in the furtherance of common aims. And, in the opinion of the undersigned, it is practicable for the Archdeaconry to make use of the City Mission Society and for the City Mission Society to make use of the Archdeaconry in such a way as to carry into effect the provisions of the canon without any radical change of organization or of working methods. The establishment of the relations of the Archdeaconry and the City Mission Society on a more satisfactory basis than they are at present simply demands an arrangement of concerted action and mutual helpfulness. And as it is necessary that the City Mission Society, on account of its charter and fiduciary responsibility, should retain its organization, the only way in which such an arrangement can be effected is to bring that organization and that of the Archdeaconry into working harmony by means of a common administration. The two organizations have a similarity of administration highly favorable to such a plan of mutual coöperation in missionary work. As the members of the Archdeaconry are the clergy canonically resident within its limits, with three lay delegates from each parish, and as the members of the City Mission Society are the clergy of New York whose congregations make an annual contribution to its objects; of patrons paying to the treasurer one hundred dollars, or more, at one time; of life members, paying twenty-five dollars, or more, at one time; and of annual subscribers of not less than five dollars, it is evident that the two organizations have a strong similarity in the matter of membership. The Bishop is at the head of each. Each has an executive committee of clergymen and laymen. Each reports to the Diocesan Convention, which is the Board of Diocesan Missions.

In the opinion of the undersigned the relations of the Archdeaconry and of the City Mission Society would be placed upon a perfectly satisfactory basis if the following suggestions were adopted by both, viz.:

1. The Archdeacon to be, ex-officio, the First Vice-President of the City Mission Society.

2. The City Mission Society to report to the Archdeaconry as a part of the Archdeaconry, and as one of its agencies.

3. In order to avoid asking city parishes to increase the number of their annual collections for missions, efforts to be made by the Archdeaconry to increase the interest of Church people in diocesan missions as carried on by the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Fund, already duly incorporated and recognized as a branch of Archdeaconry work, to the end that the fund for the same may be increased, and that some part of the fund may be available for church extension and for ministering to congregations in foreign languages in the city, under the direction of the Archdeaconry, after making due provision for work outside of the city.

4. City parishes of large resources to be requested to pledge certain yearly appropriations for church extension and for mission services in foreign languages in the city, under the direction of the Archdeaconry.

The undersigned beg leave, therefore, to recommend the adoption of the following resolution, viz.:

Resolved, That the foregoing suggestions be communicated to the Archdeaconry of New York and to the City Mission Society, with a recommendation that they appoint a committee of conference to consider them, and to take such action as they may deem best after receiving its report.

The Committee respectfully asks to be discharged.

The Rev. George R. Van DeWater, D.D., in behalf of the Chairman of the same Committee, presented the following minority report :

To the Rt. Rev. Henry C. Potter, D.D., Bishop of New York, for the Convention of the Diocese of New York.

As Chairman of the Committee appointed by the last Diocesan Convention "to inquire into the workings of the Archdeaconry of New York and the City Mission Society, to consider their relations to one another with the view of establishing these relations on a more satisfactory basis," I respectfully report that the Committee held several meetings before I left the Diocese on March 25, 1896, without arriving at any agreement ; and I herewith present my own Minority Report :

The "Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society of New York" was organized September, 1831.

The following month, at the Diocesan Convention, Bishop Onderdonk, in his address, gave his cordial approval to the proposed work, because it "was formed on principles in perfect accordance with the Canons of the Church." "Every step," said he, "has been taken with my full approbation, and the Society now waits to know whether the Convention will give them that authority to act in a portion of the Missionary Concern of the Diocese, without which all operations in the premises must be irregular, and therefore would not be thought of by this Society." (Page 34, Journal, 1831.)

Acting on this advice, the Convention forthwith, on motion,

Resolved, That so much of the Missionary Concern of this Diocese as relates to the City of New York be committed, until further pleasure of this Convention, to the Protestant Episcopal Mission Society of New York. (Page 55, Journal, 1831.)

In 1832 the Missionary of the Society, the Rev. S. C. Cutter, reported to the Convention that the work thus inaugurated had a "two-fold object. The first," said he, "was to open a church for the benefit of the poorest part of our Episcopal population, in which they may be at no expense for the support of public worship, and next, to send a missionary to visit and instruct the poor in their habitations."

In 1833 the Society was incorporated by Act of the Legislature of New York. The Act stated : " The objects of said Society are declared to be, to provide by building, purchase, hiring, or otherwise, at different points in the City of New York, churches in which seats shall be free, and mission-houses for the poor and afflicted ; and also to provide suitable clergymen and other persons to act as missionaries and assistants in and about the said churches and mission houses."

With these objects in view, the Society established various churches, many of which in the course of time became self-supporting.

After the field first marked out had been so successfully occupied, the Society was led by the providence of God to take up the public institutions of the City and the adjacent Islands (Fiftieth Annual Report of P. E. C. M. S.). This work had formerly been prosecuted by the " Protestant Episcopal Mission to the Public Institutions."

From year to year the Society, acting under the resolution of 1831, and under the law of the State, has made remarkable progress until, according to its Sixty-fourth Annual Report, it has a staff of clergy and officers that held in one year over 4,000 services, with an aggregate attendance of over 236,000.

Such, in brief, is the status of the City Mission Society. Let us now glance at the Archdeaconry.

Canon XVIII., entitled " Of the Diocesan Missionary Society," was adopted eight years ago. This Canon provides as follows : Section 3, sub-section (II.), " It shall be the duty of each Archdeaconry [1] to search out the religious needs of its own district, and to conduct and provide for such missionary work as may be undertaken by it, within its own limits, and to apportion among the several parishes the amount necessary to be raised for the same."

As the Bishop has the power—Section 3, sub-section (III.)—to nominate the Executive Officer of the Archdeaconry, it will be seen that, if the above clause was carried out, it would insure attention to every portion of the Diocese, would place the missionary work in the hands of the Bishop, and make him responsible for the same. This clause is practically and absolutely a dead letter in the Archdeaconry of New York.

Section 3, sub-section (II.), " [2] to nominate to the Bishop, for his appointment, all missionaries and other agents of the Archdeaconry, and to fix their salaries." So far as the Archdeaconry of New York is concerned, it has not made one nomination to the Bishop or fixed the salary of a single missionary within its limits.

Section 3, sub-section (II.), " [3] to have full management of its funds." This alludes to the funds as provided for in paragraph (1) ; that being a dead letter in the Archdeaconry of New York, this also is necessarily the same.

Section 3, sub-section (II.), " [4] to provide that careful statistics as to the population and condition of communities, and the results of missionary work, be collected and preserved." A most important and necessary work, which the Archdeaconry of New York has never attempted.

Section 3, sub-section (III.), provides that, " The Executive Officer or Archdeacon of each Archdeaconry shall be nominated by the Bishop and confirmed by the Archdeaconry." It shall be his duty, " (1) to superintend all the work conducted by the Archdeaconry ; (2) to have direction of all Itinerant Clergy and Associated Missions." As the Archdeaconry of New York does not support the Itinerant Clergy and Associated Missions, it naturally follows that its representative officer has no control over them ; and, further, he cannot comply with (3), which requires him to make full and regular reports of the same to the Archdeaconry.

The same canon (XVIII.) provides in Section 4 for a "Diocesan Board of Managers," "which board shall also be the Missionary Committee of the Diocese of New York, consisting of the Bishop, the five Archdeacons, secretaries and treasurers, and also five clergymen and five laymen." This committee—sub-section (II.), has power "[1] to decide, with the approval of the Bishop, what proportion of the whole sum voted by the Diocese shall be raised by, and what proportion shall be expended by, each Archdeaconry ; [2] to devise general plans for making missionary work more effective, and developing a greater missionary interest throughout the Diocese ; [3] to send to the Diocesan Board of Missions, at its annual meeting, a report."

At the last Diocesan Convention this Committee reported, page 39, Journal : "The Archdeaconry of New York does not bear the same relation to the missionary work carried on within its territory as the other Archdeacons of the Diocese." This was putting it very plainly ; and yet it would have been equally true to say that the Archdeaconry of New York is scarcely filling the requirements of the canon in any particular.

And the reason is that, despite the canon, the City Mission Society, which is a private corporation and receives and disburses the funds supplied by the Churchmen of New York for mission work in this city, holds itself independent of the Archdeaconry of New York, created by and responsible to the Diocesan Convention for the purpose of carrying on this work, and thereby hinders it from doing the work the canon commands it to do.

In other words, the City Mission Society, standing on the resolution of 1831, has not submitted to Canon XVIII., although the Convention has expressed its "further pleasure" by the enactment of that canon.

Your Committee have been appointed "to consider the relations of the Archdeaconry to the City Mission Society, with a view to establishing these relations on a more satisfactory basis." I believe that by adhering to the canon a "satisfactory basis" can be reached. It remains for the Convention to put in active operation in the Archdeaconry of New York the system that has proved satisfactory in all the other Archdeacons of the Diocese—the system that has lately been so happily inaugurated in the city of Boston, where a private corporation formerly held the field ; a system that, if it be inaugurated in the Archdeaconry of New York, will put the City Mission work on the only true basis—that of conformity to law and to the principles of ecclesiastical authority that are inherent in the constitution³ of the Church ; and, being founded on the right basis, the work may be expected to flourish more prosperously in the future than in the past.

I have no disposition to recommend any course of action that would conflict with the charter of the City Mission Society, or would interfere with its administration of its property or funds. I simply desire to suggest some method by which, on the one hand, the mission work of the city may be officially carried on by the Archdeaconry under the direction of the Bishop, in conformity with the law of the Diocese ; and, on the other, the valuable cooperation of the Society may be enjoyed by the Archdeaconry without infringement of the rights of the Society. Accordingly, as a member of your Committee, I recommend that the appointment of missionaries and other persons who carry on work of a missionary nature in connection with the churches, chapels, and other buildings belonging to and maintained by the City Mission Society be relinquished by the Society to the Archdeaconry of New York, representing the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese, and that all such persons and their work be under his direction and control ; that the use of the churches, chapels, and mission-houses, and other buildings belonging to the Society and employed in missionary work, be given to the Archdeacon for the purpose of his work, without disturbing the Society's ownership of its property or its management of its funds ; and that the income of the Society be used by it in maintaining and repairing the buildings which belong to it, and in paying the stipends of missionaries whose work shall be connected with such buildings. .

Your Committee are advised, by competent legal opinion, that such an arrangement as I have suggested is not open to objection in point of law.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

HENRY Y. SATTERLEE.

The Rev. W. S. Emery offered the following resolution, which was not adopted :

Resolved, That the resolution of the Report of the Committee on the Relations of the City Mission Society and the Archdeaconry be laid upon the table until the next meeting.

The question being on the resolution appended to the report, it was adopted.

The Rev. Charles F. Canedy gave notice that he would present to-morrow the following proposed addition to Canon XIII.

Add a section, to be called Sec. B, as follows :

It shall be the duty of the Vestry or Trustees, of such vacant Parish, when they have reached substantial agreement in the choice of a Rector, to give notice thereof, together with the name of the nominee, to the Bishop of the Diocese, at least thirty days before they proceed to an election.

The Rev. F. M. S. Taylor offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That a committee of two clergymen be appointed by the Bishop to confer with the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen in relation to a modification of the statements required to be made by clergymen applying for relief from that fund.

The Chair appointed as such committee the Rev. F. M. S. Taylor and the Rev. Chas. F. Hoffman, D.D.

On motion, the Convention adjourned until Thursday at ten o'clock.

SECOND DAY.

THURSDAY, October 1, 1896.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Morning Prayer was said by the Right Reverend the Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Bridgman, Rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, New York ; the Rev. H. M. Barbour, Rector of the Church of the Beloved Disciple, New York ; the Rev. John R. Lambert, Rector of Christ Church, Red Hook ; the Rev. John Williams, Assistant Minister of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, New York ; and the Rev. Thomas R. Harris, D.D., Secretary of Convention.

The Bishop took the chair, and the Minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

The calling of the names of members not present on the first day was dispensed with, and all such persons were requested to send their names to the Secretary's desk.

The Rev. Dr. Thomas, Archdeacon of Orange, offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That immediately after recess this Convention shall proceed to sit as the Board of Diocesan Missions.

The Rev. Dr. Richey presented the following report :

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON A RETIRING FUND FOR THE CLERGY.

The Committee appointed at the last Diocesan Convention to take into consideration the subject of a retiring fund for the clergy beg leave to report :

That three plans have been before them for the creation of a fund adequate to the need felt for the honorable retiring of the reverend clergy on a basis somewhat similar to that which the State has provided for in the retiring of officers in the army and navy, and prevails in municipal affairs for the pensioning of civic officials after the time for active duty has ceased ; but none of the propositions presented for their consideration seemed to them to further the special object which your committee felt bound to keep steadily in view in dealing with the matter committed to them.

It was hoped that the fund already in existence for the relief of the Aged and Infirm Clergy might be still further enlarged in its scope beyond the provisions lately made to aid the clergy in the securing of life insurance, and the generous offer made to facilitate the retirement of rectors of parishes by supplementing the amount given by the vestry to enable the incumbent to retire when no longer able to discharge with efficiency the duties imposed upon him. After consultation with the treasurer, it was found that the fund was not in a condition to bear any extension of its benefits beyond that which it had already undertaken.

When it was suggested to your committee that the Clergymen's Retiring Fund, now incorporated under the laws of the State of New York, might in time be enlarged beyond the narrow limits to which its operation is now confined, through the encouraging of an increase of voluntary contributions on the part of the laity, the difficulty at once presented itself that it is utterly beyond the reach of a large and increasing number of the clergy to put aside annually out of their limited incomes, amounting in a multitude of cases to some five hundred dollars per annum, even the small amount required to avail themselves of the benefits of that association. Nor did it appear reasonable to expect that men who have not sufficient to maintain their families should take it upon themselves to make provision for the future while they have not enough to meet the wants of the present. When Trustees of the Parochial Fund, some years ago, were led to make a careful examination of the condition of the clergy throughout the Diocese, they were surprised that no inconsiderable number of the clergy had even less than five hundred dollars per annum for their support.

It was urged upon your committee by an expert in matters of life insurance that, by the insuring of the lives of fifty of the clergy, not over forty years of age, in the "Optional Endowment," or "Special Income" plan, a fund might be created which, at the end of twenty years, when the insured shall have reached the age of sixty, would secure to each of the fifty an annual income of seven hundred dollars, and the entire "reserve" go to create a sinking fund which, on the maturing of the policies, would amount to not less than five hundred and fifty thousand dollars, an amount sufficient to yield an income of twenty-seven thousand dollars, enough to insure the lives of the Clergy, on reaching the age of forty, for many years to come. The proposer generously offered to interest the laity in the carrying of this plan into execution, and entertained no doubt of his being able to raise the thirty thousand dollars needed annually to carry it to a successful issue.

While of the opinion that, in a wealthy Diocese like New York, it might be worth while to accept the offer so generously made, your Committee believe that the time has come in the history of the American Church to mark the close of the century by an appeal to all its baptized members to fulfil the injunction of the Apostle, "Let him that is taught in the Word go shares with him that teacheth, in all manner of good things. For he that soweth to the flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption, but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life eternal." A grave objection to many of the efforts made to improve the financial condition of the clerical estate is that they come in a form which the clergy, consistent with their professional honor and self-respect, cannot willingly accept. Why should the clergy be called upon to receive, under the form of a dole or charity, the maintenance which, in other professional callings, is acknowledged as a due for services rendered and benefits bestowed? If the State acknowledges the moral obligation which rests upon it to provide not only for its judiciary, but for its police force, when the time comes for them to retire from active service, it is surely not less of the nature of a moral obligation on the part of the Church to acknowledge in an honorable way the services of the men who, in consecrating themselves to her service, have deliberately put aside the pursuit of wealth. Quibble and dispute about the law of the tithe as we may, it means practically that the claims of the clergy to be made partakers of the "good things" of the faithful, is of the nature of a right, based upon the principle of moral obligation, and is not a thing to be left to the whim or caprice of the party who is the recipient of the benefit.

Your committee is persuaded that there is no unwillingness on the part of the laity to make every needful provision for the honorable maintenance of the reverend clergy when the time has arrived for them to be relieved of the burden of parochial care. It only needs some well devised scheme of a general nature to accomplish the end. Let the dioceses go on, as they have been doing, in making provision for special needs in cases of sickness and infirmity, for the care of widows and orphans; but what is required for a retiring fund which will insure to every member of the profession when he arrives at a time of life to be relieved from active duty on an adequate pension, is the creation of a general fund based upon the ratio of the baptized members of the whole Church and approximating in amount at least to a million dollars. Why should the heads of families not be called upon to make a thank offering for the education and training of their children? What care, what patience, what systematic work, what diligence in the training of the young of the flock! It is not the grace given that is under consideration—that is without money and without price—but the disciplining, the training of the life bestowed by an order of men who have consecrated their lives to such a work and not to secular education. When the secular press of the day is pleading for the aged, and lamenting the loss of natural care in the case of children for their parents, shall it be that the Church will refuse to listen to the voice of the venerable presbyters who complain that in the rush of a time which measures all things by immediate results they have no chance of preferment when younger men are ready to take their place? And what better time is there to remedy the evil than the present, when we need to bewail our shortcomings in the days that are past, and see to it that the new century which is fast approaching shall find us, when it dawns upon us, with our loins girded and our lights burning.

In view of the considerations now presented, your Committee would recommend the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on the Retiring Fund for the Clergy be requested to present to the next Annual Convention of the Diocese a scheme for the creation of a general fund to be sent to the Diocese, with a view to combined action before the meeting of the next General Convention. All of which is submitted.

THOMAS RICHEY,
Chairman.

On nomination by the Rev. Thomas R. Harris, D.D., the Rev. E. Walpole Warren, D.D., and Mr. Anson Phelps Stokes were elected Deputies to the Missionary Council.

The Secretary presented the following report :

Report

OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR SEAMEN.

Reviewing the work of the Society for the past year the Managers feel justified in reporting substantial development and progress.

For specific information as to the details of the year's operations, reference is made to the accompanying reports of the Missionaries and Treasurer.

The reports of the Missionaries show great faithfulness and devotion in their work ; and in their statements, and still more in what these statements signify rather than express, they exhibit results of which the Society may well be proud.

The attendances at the reading-rooms during the year were as follows: At 341 West Street about 45,000 ; at 34 Pike Street about 22,000 ; at 21 Coenties Slip about 40,000 ; making a total of about 107,000, or an average of about 292 a day.

The persons attending the mission services during the same period numbered about 30,000.

The number of letters addressed to the care of the Society aggregated some 2,900, and the number of letters written at the rooms were about 7,700.

Few words suffice to present thus briefly the statement of these facts, but volumes would fail to tell the glowing story which these same facts import.

The expenses for the year aggregate $13,519.78, while the income has been but $10,975.67, leaving a deficiency of $2,544.11, which has been met by drawing upon the principal of the permanent fund to that extent exhausted.

Here, then, we are brought face to face once more with this serious problem of revenue. Our institution and its work are to abide. Who doubts it ? And with fields white for the harvest who of us would now advise retrenchment or abandonment ? But ends are reached through means, and the burden rests upon us to devise measures to turn the hearts of generous givers toward our work and our treasury.

The contributions for the year from different churches aggregate $2,560.00, showing, as compared with the previous year, a decrease of $427.46, and of the amount so given a large proportion was contributed by three churches alone.

Naturally the Society looks to the churches for a large part of its support, and it finds justification for the claim in the consideration that while the larger and richer churches have moved to up-town stations, our mission churches remain in the old places, with doors wide open, tendering their gracious offices to the humble masses, who would otherwise be almost debarred from church ministrations and influences.

Earnest measures need to be taken to call the attention of the churches to our Society's effective work and its needs, and to enlist their hearty sympathy and coöperation.

Owing to the increasing number of vessels finding wharfage at the Erie Basin, in Brooklyn, it has been deemed advisable to extend the work of the Society in that direction. Action was accordingly taken by the Society during the year authorizing the sale of the bulkhead property on the East River, and the removal of the Floating Church to the Erie Basin. None of these plans, however, have yet been fully executed, and religious services, growing in interest and fruitfulness, are still held in the Bethel at the old station, about which, in the mind of every member of the Society, cluster so many grateful associations.

As to our work, then, and the progress made in it, there is no room for doubt or misgiving. Not that there has been no serious question of policy or management, no doubt or difficulty to settle; but for each occasion there have been found earnest minds and skilful hands, and the work goes on widening like the sea.

We use this figure of extending influence advisedly. The personal objects of our Society's special efforts are changing and restless elements, between whom and a settled parish congregation there can be no comparison. A sailor from England or Norway may visit one of our city stations only once, but the occasion is an eventful one for him. Some kindly act, some winged word has touched him there and he is a new man. "I am not a mere waif on the sea of life," he says. "A noble Christian institution holds me in its regard, and I will be worthy of it!" And in this mind he leaves us, and we never see him again; but he goes forth from us about the world, a missionary for righteousness, and no limit can be given to the results of the good work thus begun in him.

This is not simply an imaginary picture. There are doubtless many such instances. The work which is done here under our eyes, which we touch with our hands, and of which we are a part, is certainly noble and encouraging, and justifies our claims for recognition and support. But beyond our sight there is yet this other field, wide spreading and beneficent, touching with its borders the remotest parts of the world, wherein, could our vision penetrate the distance, we should find springing up some of the richest fruits of our labors.

Before closing it is eminently fitting that grateful mention should be made of Mr. John Davenport, the Rev. Arthur Brooks, D.D., and Mr. John D. Jones, who during the year departed this life. Mr. Davenport, a lay Vice-President at the time of his death, was one of the original founders and managers of the Society, and during half a century ministered with heart and hand to the best interests of the Society, and left his name inscribed upon its records as the founder of the Davenport Fund.

Dr. Brooks, at the time of his decease one of the clerical Vice-Presidents of the Society, and in faithful service long connected with its management, had been for many years the eminent and revered rector of the Church of the Incarnation in this city. He whose name is a synonym for rectitude and fidelity needs no praises from us.

Mr. Jones, guiding with marked success large business interests and enterprises, was modest, unpretentious, wise, strong, and good in life, and is to be remembered by the Society for his many years of generous benefactions.

The Committee on the General Theological Seminary presented the following report :

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The undersigned beg to report that the General Theological Seminary continues in the same flourishing condition in which it has been for the past few years. The depreciation of property would have somewhat embarrassed the Seminary, but the large legacy of the Rev. William Eigenbrodt, D.D., saved it from any trouble, and on the return of prosperous times will no doubt become a source of revenue, and a means of enlarging the work of the Seminary.

The real value of such an institution is the theological education which it gives ; and in this respect the General Seminary is doing a valuable work, and is enlarging the course of instruction. In the past year a new instructor was added to the corps of professors. Philosophy and moral theology are now taught as part of the knowledge which should belong to a clergyman, to one who has the cure of souls, and who undertakes to form public opinion. No doubt, the General Theological Seminary will go on enlarging her course, and theological students will find the necessary instruction and knowledge in every subject which it becomes the Church to teach.

The Committee have great pleasure in expressing their confidence in the Seminary as a centre of theological learning, where young men may be prepared to meet the world on all the questions which are now agitating it.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

The Rev. Dr. Tiffany, Archdeacon of New York, presented the following report :

Report

OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS.

The Board of Managers of Diocesan Missions respectfully report as follows :

1. The Archdeacon of Dutchess reports that missionary work has been carried on during the past year at the same stations (8) that were reported last September. Four changes have been made in the list of missionaries. Rev. Frederick Thompson has had charge of St. Paul's Church, Pleasant Valley, since last January at a stipend of $500, a saving of $450 annually to the treasury of the Archdeaconry. Rev. John Tunis, Rector of Grace Church, Millbrook, cared for St. Peter's Church, Lithgow, from last November to the time of his death in August. His work was genuine and thorough, like the man himself. Rev. E. V. Evans became missionary in charge of St. Thomas' Church, Amenia Union, last winter, and this old parish is in better condition than it has been for many years. Since last Lent the lay missionary at Stone House has had the charge of work at Hopewell Junction, succeeding Rev. H. O. Ladd. The people of Hopewell have offered to raise $200 or $300 annually, that, with the help of Archdeaconry funds, they may have a resident missionary. During the summer Mr. R. H. Brooks, a layman of Christ Church, Poughkeepsie, has held service on Sundays in St. Mark's Church, Carthage Landing. He has been successful in awakening an interest that may lead to arrangements for permanent service at this point. The work of Mr. Burdick at Dover Plains is commended, from which mission $100 are sent every year to the Treasurer of the Archdeaconry. Glenham, Pine Plains and Stone House bear witness to the faithful labors of the missionaries in charge. This Archdeaconry has suffered from the business depression of the past year, but at all the mission stations there has been a steady advance, and a marked absence of friction between pastor and people.

Last winter Grace Church, Millbrook, became independent of Archdeaconry help, relieving the treasury by $200 annually. With this amount added to the $450 saved by new arrangements at Pleasant Valley, it is hoped to begin at once a larger work in the Harlem Valley at Pawling, Wassaic, Amenia and Millerton. The Harlem Valley project must, however, wait till better times. This work will be undertaken as soon as possible.

The Diocese, as well as this Archdeaconry, has been saddened by the death of Rev. John Tunis, Rector of Grace Church, Millbrook, and Missionary in Charge of St. Peter's Church, Lithgow. He was a man of rare intellectual gifts, and his charming personality won all hearts. He was a pastor of untiring energy, and ready and wise in his sympathy—one of those who give more than men expect from them. Those who were privileged to know him intimately grieve over the early close of his life, already very fertile of results, and promising so much for Christ and the Church.

2. The Archdeacon of Orange reports that notwithstanding the stringency of the times, in a financial aspect, all work has been maintained in a high state of efficiency during the past year. During seven months an itinerant was employed who sought out the scattered sheep in villages and hamlets outside of parochial and regular mission limits, and ministered to them the Word of God and the Sacraments. The salary of this itinerant was raised almost wholly from special subscriptions entirely apart from the missionary funds, and from offerings of the Women's Auxiliary of this Archdeaconry.

As signs of progress may be mentioned the purchase of a most desirable lot adjoining the church property at Rosendale, Ulster County, and the entire payment for it by the local congregation; the repainting within and without of St. Peter's Church, Stone Ridge, and the discharge of these additional expenses by the local congregation. Summer services have been again maintained at Big Indian and Mead's Mount in the Catskills, and at Greenwood Lake Mission, without one cent of expense to the missionary funds. The Archdeacon of Westchester spent his summer holidays at Big Indian during August, and officiated regularly in the neat Chapel of St. Bartholomew. Both here and at Mead's Mount the church buildings have been erected and are kept up without calling for any aid from our mission funds.

At Marlborough, the local congregation, in spite of hard times, has raised sufficient money during the past year to enable it to dispense with a portion of the missionary stipend for the year to come. At the end of next year Warwick expects to become entirely self-supporting. It received but fifty dollars this year. The policy of the Archdeaconry is to constantly encourage self-support, and to use the funds hereby released to the opening up of such new work as may justify the undertaking.

Since the last report, the Rev. John Anketell has been appointed as missionary to Walden, and the Rev. F. N. Strader to Ellenville. The Rev. Octavius Applegate, Jr., has been transferred to the Diocese of New Hampshire. A most faithful priest and successful worker, his departure is greatly regretted. The Rev. F. Washburn has resigned the care of the Mission at Liberty.

The dedication of the new Sanitarium at Liberty will occur on the 14th of November, and the prospect of its employment of a resident chaplain may make possible the utilization of his services for necessary ministrations in the Parish Church at Liberty.

3. The Archdeacon of Westchester reports that the work of the year has not been without encouragement. Though let and hindered as to the comfort of their administration by the tardiness of offerings and a shrinkage in their income, the work has not been lessened, or the zeal of the missionary clergy abated. The ground covered in this Archdeaconry is large, and in two of its counties, Rockland and Putnam, the Church, as yet, is not strong. In Putnam County, however, there are two instances of a method by which Diocesan Missions can be efficiently served worthy of their consideration. The Rev. Dr. Thompson of Garrison's, sustains and ministers to two stations outside of his parish church, and the Rev. Mr. Heartfield of Brewster, with the assistance of Mr. Meldrum, Missionary at Patterson, successfully carries on two vigorous Missions. Two remarkable cases of the extinguishment of debt are reported in two of their Missions. Sixteen years ago, the Rev. Thomas Stephens took charge of the Mission in Rockland County of St. Paul's, Spring Valley, and St. John's, New City. A debt of about $2,000 rested on the property at Spring

Valley. By strenuous effort, with self-denial on the part of the Rector depriving him of proper support through all these years, the debt has been paid, and the church property put in excellent condition. After a careful inspection made of church and grounds, we now ask that the Bishop consecrate the church at an early date. The other case, that of St. John's, Lewisboro, reflects great credit on their missionary, the Rev. C. M. Selleck. A loan of $1,500 made in 1884 by the Church Building Commission, besides several notes, which encumbered the property, will be met by the first of the year as reported by Mr. Selleck. Too high praise and honor cannot be accorded to these clergymen and their faithful laity, who have so nobly seconded their efforts. Two valuable Church properties have thus been saved to the Diocese. The spiritual work, too, is growing in both places. Mr. Selleck writes that at Lewisboro "the numbers are highly encouraging, and the Mission at South Salem is in a flourishing condition." The Rev. Mr. Masker, of St. Luke's Church, Haverstraw, Rockland County, reports some severe losses during the year. The Senior Warden, Mr. William G. Wattson, was murdered in his office at Weehawken. He had, during his residence within the parish, shown a keen interest in all its affairs; his taking off was a sad blow to both the Church and the community. While the parish is poor, there is deep interest in the services. Mr. Masker regularly serves the Mission at Tompkins' Cove. The Archdeaconry would acknowledge its indebtedness to the Cathedral Mission for services at the Chapel of the House of the Good Shepherd, the past summer. At Lake Mahopac, Kent Cliffs and Richardville, Putnam County, the Rev. Mr. Sutcliffe is holding the ground with but little encouragement. The seasons at the lake have of late been less prosperous. At Kent Cliffs there have been many removals, but at Richardville the congregations are larger and much interested in the ministrations of the Church. The new chapel at Sherwood Park, West Mt. Vernon, opened on the Feast of the Purification last winter under the charge of the Rector of the Ascension, Mt. Vernon, and served by his assistant, the Rev. Mr. Butler, ministers to an increasing number of people in that neighborhood. The excellent work of the Church of the Redeemer, Pelham, is commended. The Rev. Mr. Bolton was full of courage when he built his new church. There was urgent need, and he met it. It should not be forgotten that this effort entailed on the Rector and his Vestry a heavy burden in meeting interest and paying the debt. A large amount of the care in this Archdeaconry has to be expended in the supplementing of the salaries of the rectors of feeble parishes. Their work could not go on without this. But until this Archdeaconry is freed from this responsibility, or funds increase, new and promising openings may not be entered. The Archdeaconry this year has lost a faithful priest and missionary. The Archdeacon begs leave to quote the tribute to the Rev. Dr. Gibson contained in his annual report: "It becomes our first duty in this, our annual report, to record the sudden death of one of our honored and beloved clergy, the Rev. J. Breckinridge Gibson, D.D. Dr. Gibson had been placed in charge of St. George's Mission, Williamsbridge. In his brief ministry there, he had shown rare wisdom and devoted zeal in gathering scattered souls, and making men to be of one mind in that Mission. His was a consecrated ministry, bearing from the Church and its altar the fire of love to his work, and amongst his people. A young man of the Baptist faith, confirmed at the Visitation of the Bishop last fall, expressed the universal feeling as to Dr. Gibson: 'The life of our good Rector is a gracious benediction in the Chapel and community.' Dr. Gibson had been ill for several weeks through April and May. His recovery from an attack of malarial fever was slow. His great desire was to renew his work on the first Sunday in June. This he was able to do. After morning service and the Celebration of the Holy Communion on Sunday, June 7th, he was to attend the funeral of his oldest parishioner in the early afternoon. Going to the house, and while vesting for that office, he suddenly fainted, soon became unconscious, and died an hour later. Those of us who had the privilege of Dr. Gibson's friendship, and knew his mind, shared the feeling that this sudden call, while at work for his Master, was just what he would have most desired. Like Enoch, he walked with God; and he was not, for God took him. And we are sure, that in the history of the old Southern Missionary Convocation, of which body he was the honored Dean, and in this Archdeaconry, the memories of our brother departed will be ever felt—breathing the fragrance of a loving life, uttering the power of a consecrated ministry."

4. The Archdeacon of Richmond reports that the Mission Stations are as follows: Concord and Garrettson's, Rev. H. N. Lawrence; Erastina, Rev. Edward Bell; Tottenville and Prince's Bay, Rev. F. Welham; Eltingville and New Dorp, Rev. C. P. Wilson.

The number of changes among the incumbents of the Mission Stations makes it difficult to give an accurate report of their condition.

Mr. Lawrence has had charge of Concord and Garrettson's for only a few weeks, and as the records of his predecessors are very deficient he can make only a partial report. There is every prospect of growth and improvement in the two Missions under his charge, their past progress having been prevented by the absence of proper care.

Erastina continues to hold its own under the Rev. Mr. Bell. The services have been regularly held, and though the attendance is not large there is an earnest spirit among the supporters of the work that promises well for the future.

St. Stephen's, Tottenville, under the Rev. Mr. Welham, has made satisfactory progress. There has been some trouble in the relations between the Mission at Prince's Bay, so that no accurate report can be given; but it would seem as if there were every prospect of a vigorous life in both the Stations when they are ready to work together.

The Rev. C. P. Wilson has had charge of the Missions at Eltingville and New Dorp, and his report indicates faithful work, with prospects of steady growth in the future.

The general condition of the Archdeaconry is encouraging, and it is hoped that the coming year will show decided improvement, as the present missionaries seem likely to remain at their posts permanently.

5. The Archdeacon of New York reports that the Archdeaconry of New York has during the year since the last Diocesan Convention completed its organization by the election of an Executive Committee, and entered actively on its special work of Church extension and Mission work among foreign-speaking people in the City of New York. Its work among foreign-speaking peoples in the city has been chiefly carried on through the agency of those parishes which have hitherto labored in this department of Church work, and which have generally put under the supervision of the Archdeacon their special Missions of this character.

Of these Missions those carried on by St. Bartholomew Parish (now under the superintendence of the Archdeacon of New York) are the most considerable. This parish maintains an Oriental, a Scandinavian, and a Chinese Mission, which have been regularly visited by the Archdeacon, and concerning which he submits the following brief report: Missionaries, 3; Congregations, average, 200; Communicants, 275; Salaries and expenses, $6,250. Calvary Parish carries on through its Archdeaconry Committee a large and valuable work among the Armenians, under the charge of Mr. N. S. Hagopian, which has been visited and addressed from time to time by the Archdeacon. It is maintained by Calvary Archdeaconry Committee at the cost of $750 annually. In addition to this work among the Armenians by the Archdeaconry Committee of Calvary Church, an extensive and valuable work in the prisons and charitable institutions of the city is carried on by them.

The Archdeaconry Committee of St. Andrew's Church, Harlem, has, under the direction of the Archdeacon, done much valuable work in systematic and constant weekly visiting of the female wards of the City Hospital, Blackwell's Island, furnishing delicacies for the sick, obtaining places for the convalescent, and furnishing a choir once a month for the Communion service by the Chaplain. One hundred persons visited each week is reported. An interesting Chinese Sunday-school is also conducted by the members of St. Andrew's, Harlem.

An Archdeaconry Committee has also been organized in the Church of the Incarnation, which will devote its energies to Church extension among the colored population.

An attempt has been made to resuscitate Church work among the Spanish-speaking population, formerly carried on by the Church of St. Iago. It has not been largely successful, but has accomplished a measure of good.

The Archdeaconry soon found its attention called to the work of Church extension in the newer districts of the city beyond the Harlem River. The result has been the establishment of a mission for colored people at 611 East 158th Street, a region thickly settled by several thousand negroes, for whose religious wants no special provision had been made by any religious communion. This mission is cared for by a candidate for holy orders under the Archdeacon. A commodious hall has been rented and regular Church and Sunday-school services are held. There are 51 families in attendance; 25 communicants; 79 Sunday-school scholars; 9 Sunday-school teachers. Since February, 1896, 92 sermons and addresses have been delivered; 1,104 visits have been paid; 6 baptisms have been performed; and 23 burial services. The mission is wholly dependent for support on the Archdeaconry.

The promising and interesting Mission of St. George's at Williamsbridge has been taken in charge by the Archdeaconry, and regularly supplied with services since the lamented death of Rev. Dr. Gibson.

To increase and strengthen this work in so important a situation, and to maintain the Colored Mission, large and generous response from parishes as well as isolated individuals is requisite, in order to keep the Church abreast with the growing needs of the population in the rapidly growing districts of the enlarged city boundaries.

On motion of the Archdeacon of Westchester the Rt. Rev. Dr. Gailor, the Bishop Coadjutor of Tennessee, was invited to a seat beside the President. On being presented by the President to the Convention, he made a brief address.

The work of which this record is the summary has been performed under conditions that group themselves obviously into two departments, widely dissimilar. This diocese is charged with the grave responsibility of ministering to the largest civic community existing on this continent. The problems, therefore, with which it is called to concern itself are not merely those which, ordinarily, differentiate urban from rural communities, but those, also, which distinguish a city numbering its population by millions, and illustrating within its ever-widening limits civilizations as various and diverse, if not as vast, as those which elsewhere are to be found only in the various divisions of a continent. New York is not merely American, nor German, nor Spanish, nor a community including many more European communities of various tongues and lineage : it is Oriental as well as Occidental ; it is Chinese, Japanese, Israelitish, Armenian, Syrian, Mesopotamian, and much more. Here, as nowhere else, a process of transmutation is all the time going on, of infinite consequence to the life of the republic, of inexhaustible interest to the disciple of Jesus Christ.

Most unlike this is that other problem which presents itself to those of us who are at work not in the city but in the country. Of a less various and picturesque aspect, without conspicuous elements of novelty or intricacy, it is none the less a problem with manifold difficulties and of enduring importance. We who live in the city have lately acquired, more or less largely, a legal title to the borders of all streams which feed the reservoirs that feed the city—and none too soon. Science has revealed to us the tremendous perils of an indifference that should be content to leave them outside of our vigilant regard. But such perils are insignificant compared with those which threaten a city perpetually taking up into its civic and social life those other streams which unceasingly flow in upon us from outside of a city's boundaries. These may as easily corrupt, as refresh or reënforce us; and it ought to lift the work of the extra-urban clergy and laity into the light of its real importance to remind ourselves how much that is best or worst among us here in the city is conditioned upon its success or failure. It is in view of such considerations that this Convention has taken order that it shall be a part of the fixed course of our procedure to sit as a Board of Missions. The legislative office of such a body as this—or its fiduciary office, if I may so describe it, as the body to which those who administer our various trusts shall report—is but a part of its reason for being. It is bound to remind itself also of its greater stewardship, as having been put in trust of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; and it is especially bound to ask itself how, specifically, by the discharge of its missionary responsibilities, it may faithfully fulfil that trust.

A serious obstacle in the way of this has been our mutual ignorance. There are very few of our great city congregations who do not know more about the missionary work of Wyoming or Alaska than they do about that of Rockland, Putnam, Sullivan, or Ulster counties in our own diocese. Indeed, comparisons are misleading here, for the ignorance in one case is relative only, while in the other it is often absolute. Surely it ought not to be so, and it need not be. I have already proposed, here, a method for bringing our diocesan missions and missionaries into closer and more mutually stimulating relationships with the city parishes that chiefly maintain them; and I ask you, at this Convention, to intrust the matter to a committee of your own body, in order to provide for such canonical enactment as may set in operation some very simple and entirely practicable methods of localizing responsibility for the missionary work of the diocese, and awakening and deepening interest in its maintenance and extension.

Another matter concerning which I hope most earnestly that the diocese in convention assembled may be moved to take canonical action, is in the matter of greater safeguards in connection with the settlement of clergymen in cures. Our system of vestry elections has features with which I heartily sympathize. But it has elements of danger which are, alas! no longer mere matters of speculation. It is quite idle to discuss the advantage of some other system of appointment to cures, for there are some things which, like universal suffrage, when once conceded are very unlikely ever to be recalled. But a Church which calls itself Episcopal ought to be unwilling to dismiss the Episcopate from all practical responsibility for the choice and settlement of its pastors. It ought, if no more, to make it the duty of a parish to communicate to the Ordinary, at least thirty days in advance of its call to a priest to be its rector, due notice of its purpose to make such call; and it ought to make it no less the duty of the Ordinary, when so notified, to place unreservedly at the service of a vestry such information as he may possess for its better information and guidance. No existing rights would be in the smallest degree invaded by such a course; and some existing wrongs and mutually miserable relationships would be avoided. The tie of a minister to his parish has been likened to that of marriage. If it is, then a great many parochial marriages are clandestine marriages, and liable to be as wretched and unhappy as are other alliances consummated in mutual ignorance.

One way—to advance to the consideration of another matter—of preventing such alliances, will be the safe guarding, as far as possible, of the avenues that lead to them. The chief of these avenues, so far as one of the two parties is concerned in the union between a people and its pastor, is the avenue that leads to the ministry. As some of you know, I have striven steadily to raise the standard of requirement in this diocese in the case of candidates for orders; and we have now perfected a system of examination which is at once impartial, competent, and thorough. Its application has, in some instances, been found to involve inconveniences to students which I trust we shall be able to remedy; but it is proper that I should say that, where those inconveniences are not remediable, it will be necessary for candidates for orders and for our various theological schools to accept them as part of the unavoidable conditions which, in this matter, canonically determine final responsibility. This rests, ultimately and wholly, with the Ordinary, and the canon law of this Church does not divide it between any save the bishop and his examining chaplains. Upon these, to-day in our American Church, is imposed the responsibility as to the worthiness or unworthiness of a candidate for Holy Orders. Collegiate or other examinations or diplomas are, in that connection, of neither canonical force nor value. And therefore every endeavor to lift the standard of canonical examinations, and to enforce strict conformity with the Church's explicit requirements, will command, I believe, the hearty sympathy of all right-minded men. Ours it ought surely to be, to set in this matter a high standard, and then—rigidly to enforce it. The Church is not suffering to-day for lack of clergy. Such a cry, by whomsoever raised, is either ignorant or interested; but it is suffering for want of what alone it ought to be willing to accept—the best. If its ordinations were always so guarded as to demand and accept none other, it would, I am persuaded, incalculably increase both its intellectual and its spiritual power.

It is of the need of such reënfacement that our losses during the past year impressively remind us, for they have indeed been, in conspicuous instances, the loss of our best. The following is the list of clergy belonging to this diocese who have, since we last met in diocesan convention, departed this life:

The Rev. James Millett.—For nearly half a century rector of the Church of the Holy Martyrs, New York City, an eminently faithful, well-learned presbyter, and as a missionary in this city widely known and esteemed.

The Rev. James Radcliffe Davenport, D.D.—At one time rector of St. Mary's Church, Mott Haven, and at the time of his death secretary of the Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society.

The Rev. John Breckenridge Gibson, D.D.—For twenty-two years principal of St. John's School, Sing Sing, and at the time of his death in charge of St. George's Church, Williamsbridge.

The Rev. Libertus Morris Van Bokkelen, rector of St. Thomas's Church, Mamaroneck.—A presbyter of much promise and all too soon cut off.

The Rev. John Tunis, rector of Grace Church, Millbrook, of whom the same may no less truly be said.

The Rev. John F. Schroeder.

The Rev. John W. Trimble.

The Rev. James L. Maxwell, of this city, during the past few years one of our city missionaries, and giving himself, after his retirement from a cure in a neighboring diocese, to work among the poor and unfortunate with cheerful fidelity: and

The Rev. Elie Charlier, for many years identified with the education of boys in New York City, and at the time of his death residing abroad.

Among the laity called away have been :

Mr. Frederick Hubbard, of Trinity Parish, New York City.

Mr. Pomeroy P. Dickinson, senior warden of St. Ann's Church, New York, vice-president of the Church Mission to Deaf-Mutes, and a member of the executive committee of the City Mission Society.

Mr. George Bliss, warden of Grace Church, New York City ; treasurer of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, and a Churchman and citizen of rare ability, and of singularly modest, unselfish, and beautiful life.

Mr. Joseph W. Harper, a vestryman of St. Thomas's Church and a Christian gentleman of great charm of mind and nobility of temper.

Mr. Horace Manuel, of the Church of Zion and St. Timothy, New York City ; a member of the Board of Trustees of the Society for the Relief of Destitute Blind in the City of New York and its vicinity, " who lost his life in trying to save others in a fire in the house of his friend, Mr. Arminger, in Baltimore."

Mr. Aaron Ogden, treasurer of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund.

Mr. Edward L. Tiemann, of St. Michael's Church, New York City ; a member of the executive committee of the City Mission Society, and for over nineteen years treasurer of the House of Rest for Consumptives.

Mr. William Augustus Davies, the founder of the parish, and the president of the Board of Trustees of the Church of the Holy Comforter, Poughkeepsie ; a man of rare beneficence, the chosen friend and counsellor of the late bishop of this diocese, and a Churchman of unbounded loyalty, and perennial kindness and courtesy to all sorts and conditions of men ; and

Mr. George Clinton Miller, the faithful friend and warden of St. James's Church, Goshen.

Outside of our own borders, the Church has lost from her militant ranks but one of her bishops, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Arthur Cleveland Coxe ; but what a loss that is ! We do well to remember him here in New York. Here he was reared ; here he found his way to the feet of his teacher and master, Hobart ; here he was ordained to the holy ministry ; and here, after eminent service in other dioceses, he returned to become, as rector of Calvary Church in this city, a part of our most honored and cherished traditions. No figure, I venture to think, has vanished out of our American ecclesiastical horizon more interesting, more stimulating, more lovable.

It is little to say of Bishop Coxe that he was picturesque, inexhaustibly fresh, and original. He was all these, in a degree which makes of his departure the quenching of a rare and brilliant light. But, unlike many persons of merely striking qualities, he had a deep substratum of lofty motives, of fearless courage, of large and various learning, of blameless and beautiful behavior, and best of all, of profound and unbending convictions, which surely we who remember them can never cease to love and honor. His very faults, if faults they could be called, were those which leaned to virtue's side, and for myself I must confess that they were some of them traits which I have often thought we who were his brethren could well afford to exchange for more thrifty and more comfortable virtues! He was impulsive, if you choose. He was not always reserved or chastened in his speech. He had often a hot scorn of falsehood and wrong, of arrogant claims, and of insolent and unwarranted pretensions, which found expression in words as keen and fiery as his thought. Yes: but it was not the heat of mere passion, nor the tawdry declamation of a rhetorician. He knew whereof he affirmed, and his ample stores of various and genuine learning abundantly reënforced the positions which, from time to time, he felt himself called upon to take. A preacher of singular eloquence; a chief pastor of apostolic tenderness, fidelity, and assiduity; a scholar of exceptional attainments; a Christian gentleman, the charm of whose presence and bearing who that ever knew them will forget?—verily, his departure is a loss which we may not soon hope to repair!

And this is especially true in connection with incidents in our current history which, in one aspect of them or another, must today be in all our minds. We here, in America, are passing through a civic crisis which involves as its essential characteristic the single question whether, at this period of the world's history, any single people may hope successfully to divorce itself from all the past—from other and older civilizations—and be a law and a life to itself. That is at this hour the question which involves the very foundations of our social order, and to which all other issues are secondary and inferior.

It is not surprising that we are not all of us equally clear about it—least of all those of us who are indigenous to the soil and lineal inheritors of American institutions, and of our unique national history. This last, with its phenomenal triumphs, mainly over material obstacles, is of a character at once to intoxicate and often profoundly mislead. As an acute observer, one of our own countrymen,* has lately put it: "Men who have conquered nature are not likely to fear anything. The stubbornness of facts does not deeply impress men who have overcome the stubbornness of earth and air and water—who have laid the forest low, and made a highway over the river, and tilled the granite rocks. Men who can catch the trout stream that has played for ages, force it into the fetters of a penstock, blind it to the sunlight in which it used to dance, and make it, like Samson, turn a mill in utter darkness; men who can raise tall edifices where nature raised only blackberry-bushes; men who can get one hundred and sixty acres of land for nothing, and sell it in town lots for a million dollars—such men do not think it is a difficult thing to invent a new religion, to set up a new political fabric, to create a new standard of value, or to do business without any standard. To men who have met and conquered physical nature, the regulation of such an unsubstantial thing as human nature seems only child's play. The teachings of history have no meanings for them, because some of them never heard of the teachings, and others reflect that, as they are not Greeks or Romans, English, French, or Germans, inhabitants of an old country or of a small country, or subjects of a king, the experiences of these obsolete and foreign peoples teach no lessons that they need to learn."

In matters of civic or national interest, such a mistake, as some of us are coming to recognize, is radical and fundamental. It would be well if in affairs that are not secular but spiritual and ecclesiastical, we could come to recognize it no less; and if the great bishop whom to-day we mourn, and to whom I have already referred, were here, no man could discern it more plainly or state its significance more clearly. A year ago I referred, in this place, to the courteous communication addressed to those in another land, who are of our spiritual lineage and ancestry, by a venerable Roman ecclesiastic, of whose kindly purpose nobody, I suppose, had any smallest doubt; and I endeavored to point out how vain and illusory, from any such standpoint as he then occupied, were the hopes and aspirations which he then expressed. Since then he has made them even more so by describing all other chief pastors than those who are his own curates as a "lawless and disorderly crew," and by pronouncing all other orders than those derived from the See of Peter as invalid and worthless. It is a declaration, let me say, for which all Christendom, outside of his own communion, and especially our own branch of it, has reason to be profoundly thankful. I cannot readily imagine any greater misfortune to the cause of Jesus Christ, at this moment, than any other declaration; and I confess I am moved, in view of the very considerable temptation to make some other, more ambiguous and less explicit, to respect sincerely the courage and candor that prompted it. That it is made in large ignorance of the facts, and from a somewhat narrow and provincial vision of the situation, does not wholly take away from the value of this unshrinking frankness; while one cannot but hope that its effect upon those whose fatuous and unmanly procedure has invited and provoked it may be deep and lasting. Anglican Churchmen and American Christians of the same lineage have nothing whatever to hope from the Italian prelate who makes bold to call himself the vicar of God. It is matter for profound thankfulness that they have not. Somewhere, somehow, by ways that no one of us can as yet even dimly discern, the scattered forces of Christendom will find themselves drawn together with a common purpose and in a common fellowship. But when they do, neither they nor we, any more than in the domain of things civic and temporal, can consent to forget the lessons or the authority of the past. Dismissing at last that superincumbent mass of mediæval and modern historical ignorance, historical distortion, and historical imposture which survives to-day as the Latin tradition, and which has for centuries buried out of sight the primitive and apostolic foundations, men will return to those scriptural and universally accepted symbols to which that oldest branch of the Church Catholic—the branch which is Eastern and not Western still adheres, and on which the best learning and the purest faith of Anglo-Saxon Christendom equally rest. There is much to be learned by all of us before we may hope to see the dawn of a better day for the divided ranks of Christendom; and it may be that those of us who love and have striven for the cause of Christian Unity, whether on the right hand or left, are called upon, for the present, to suspend our endeavors and to be content for a little to wait for a day of better promise; but believe me, when that day dawns it will not be in answer to any beckoning from an Italian prelate—or not, at any rate, until he, or those who may come after him, have unlearned pretensions so unscriptural as to be grotesque, and surrendered claims which the growing enlightenment of mankind make daily more and more pathetic and ridiculous. The Christian world has learned to read and to think. It is a jury before which the claims of ecclesiastical systems must needs be arraigned, whether they will or no. It has not lost—this clear-seeing, modern age, as some doleful voices upon our ecclesiastical housetop would fain have us believe—the instinct of faith or the ready mind and will to obey the Eternal Voice. But it must be made clear that you and I, and all others who claim to be the organs of that Voice—the representatives of a divine Authority, have some other justification for such a claim than the colossal audacity with which we make it. The day is coming when the theology and the ecclesiastical polity of Leos and Hildebrands, earlier and later, must give way to the theology and the polity of a greater than any of them—I mean Cyprian—which was the theology and the polity of those twelve first-chosen ones from whom he so plainly derived it.

Meantime, dear brethren of the clergy and laity, your duty and mine lies clearly before us. Heirs of a great past, the children and the children's children of those who were so divinely guided to distinguish between the transient and the permanent, between the corrupt traditions of men and the revealed mind of God—ours, whose is a lineage so noble and a trust so sacred, it most surely is to hand it on and down untarnished and unimpaired; to prize its blessings, to proclaim its message, to carry, where God shall open for us the way, the healing gifts of its Word and Sacraments; and so to set forward the day when indeed there shall be one flock and one Shepherd, Jesus Christ, the same yesterday and to-day and forever. May God make us worthy for so great a task, and give us strength and wisdom with which to perform it!

Five have removed from the parish and one has died, and there are none to take their place. No new families have moved into the place; it is very dull. There has been quite a good deal of sickness in the place, and the congregation has been quite small through the winter and spring. The chapel is not in a village and the congregation is much scattered; and they cannot afford to keep horses, as all have to work for their daily bread. I am now 81 years of age, preach one sermon on Sunday, sweep the chapel, and ring the bell.

The mission work at New Dorp is full of promise. There is pressing need for a church building, and the efforts of the people are now directed to this end. We have $100 saved for this purpose and hope soon to add materially to it, so that we may procure the site, when building operations will be at once commenced.

The people are few in number who take an interest in the work, but they are earnest and diligent, and this year are raising $460 towards the salary, besides paying the rent of the store in which we worship and laying by a fund for building purposes. The town of New Dorp is one of the most flourishing places in the island. There is no place of worship there, the Moravian church being some little distance away from the town proper. It is most important we should occupy the ground first, and we should be grateful for any assistance in the shape of funds.

At Christmas-tide in 1895 the congregation raised $30,000, to be devoted to the enlargement of the present church edifice, which has not been able to contain all the worshippers who desire permanent accommodations. The lot adjoining on West End Avenue was immediately secured, and the Rev. Dr. Hoffman gave to the corporation two lots adjoining on West Eighty-first Street, together with two other lots connecting on the north side of Eightieth Street. Upon the rear portions of these lots the church building is being extended so that its seating capacity will be thereby doubled. The parish will still possess the frontage of fifty feet on both Eightieth and Eighty-first Streets and also twenty-five feet additional on West End Avenue for future buildings. The gift here referred to is another evidence of the wise fashion in which the rector has gradually and constantly stimulated the congregation to greater effort and larger efficiency.

Since April of last year St. Ann's Church has been holding services in union with the Church of St. John the Evangelist, corner Waverley Place and West Eleventh Street. The change from its former location in Eighteenth Street near Fifth Avenue and the expectation that the new St. Ann's would be in a distant part of the city have led to quite a large number of parishioners settling in churches nearer to them. This, with the fact that the offerings for current expenses and other objects have, as a rule, been contributed through the offertory of St. John's, makes it difficult to prepare an exact report. We have only given items and results of labor that it has been possible to separate easily. A site favorable to its special work has been chosen, and the parish is ready to build and begin work as soon as canonical assent has been obtained. Meantime, favored by the kindness and courtesy of the rector and people of St. John's, the parish is trying to carry on its work and serve the Master through this church as best it may. As is generally known, St. Ann's is a double parish, having, in addition to its work among the hearing and speaking, a special work among deaf mutes. In its work among the silent people it represents the diocese. We ask for it the interest, sympathy, and prayers of our brethren.

The Church of the Holy Trinity ceased to exist ecclesiastically about November 1, 1895, having been consolidated with the Church of St. James, Madison Avenue and Seventy-first Street, New York City, under the rectorship of Rev. E. Walpole Warren, D.D., the former rector of the Holy Trinity corporation.

The heavy debt upon the church had for nine years crippled all possibilities of doing a satisfactory work for so important a church (a debt which had rested on the church ever since its incorporation), and had made families afraid of joining membership with a church so financially embarrassed; and the noisy corner of Forty-second Street and Madison Avenue, on which the church stood, had long been a cause of annoyance to the congregation, and the building of a fourteen-story hotel immediately opposite capped the climax of annoyances, so that, when the vestry of St. James' approached the trustees of the Holy Trinity with a view to consolidating the two parishes, after much deliberation and many meetings it was considered wise to embrace the opportunity, and by the union of the two parishes to make one exceptionally strong corporation of St. James'.

With the consent and hearty approval of the Bishop and the Standing Committee of the Diocese, application was made to the court for judicial sanction to the proposed sale of the church and was at once obtained, the conditions of the sanction being the same as those proposed by the joint vestries:

1. The building of a new church on the east side of the city above Eightieth Street, to be called the Church of the Holy Trinity, for which $200,000 was set aside.

2. To extinguish the debts of both corporations, amounting to $400,000, thereby freeing from incumbrance the Church of St. James' down-town property, amounting to over $10,000 a year endowment on that church, and using the balance for the advantage of the parish of St. James.

The sale of the church property for $750,000 and the well nigh promised benefaction of a church with parish house and clergy house, in the upper part of the city on the east side, to be endowed by St. James' in lieu of building a new church, to the extent of $200,000, makes it more than probable that the union of the parishes will result to the benefit of the Episcopal Church in New York to a very appreciable extent.

The Rev. Cornelius Smith, D.D., former rector of St. James', resigned the rectorship, and, to mark the deep sense of love and gratitude on the part of the parish for his twenty-five years of service, he was immediately made Rector Emeritus, with a handsome yearly salary attached to that otherwise honorary office.

The village of Pearl River is rapidly growing. The factory has been the means of bringing a large number of families to settle in the village and in its vicinity. The majority of them, however, are Germans, who know nothing of the church. They, however, send their children to Sunday-school. An effort is being made to have a German service once a month. The first was held on Easter Sunday, the Rev. A. Ulmann, D.D., being the preacher, and the effort was successful.

The treasurer being in Europe at the present time, I have given this report to the best of my ability, and it is, I believe, correct. During the past year the parish has made much progress, three Sunday-schools meeting every Sunday and three to four services being held. The parish extends over eight thousand acres, and thus the necessity of having a number of Sunday-schools and services. A rectory has been built, at a cost of $12,000 (not all paid for), and a Sunday-school room and chapel, at a cost of $500. A kindergarten, cooking school, and sewing class, the expenses of which are met by St. Mary's Guild, have been most successfully carried on during the past year. The difficulty of the parish consists in the moving population, and hence the extreme difficulty of giving correct figures in the parochial statistics.

The present rector entered on his duties St. Andrew's Day, 1895; the report of his services, therefore, covers only a period of five (5) months. During this period he has had the pleasure of seeing the congregation—number of actual communicants—and Sunday scholars more than doubled, and peace and harmony restored to this ancient parish. The membership of the Woman's Auxiliary has increased from 6 to 70, and a strong branch of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew has been re-established.

THE REV. A. B. JENNINGS.

"Since my resignation of St. Paul's, Sing Sing, December 1, 1895, I have spent most of my time in Southern California, seeking to regain health and strength, and assisting my brethren the clergy as best I could. THE REV. CORNELIUS B. SMITH, D.D.,

Rector Emeritus of St. James' Church, New York.

"On the first of November I resigned the Rectorship which I had held for twenty-eight years in St. James' Parish. The occasion of this action was the union of this church with that of the Holy Trinity. My heart is full of thanksgiving for a result so rich in promise for the future of the East Side; as, ere long, we hope to see a new Church of the Holy Trinity, more complete than the old, among people of moderate means. Since the date above mentioned I have been constantly busy with doing a clergyman's blessed work without a pastor's responsibility."

THE
PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH
IN THE

As Adopted October 11, 1796 ; and Amended October 17, 1827 ; October 2, 1834 ;
October 4, 1839 ; September 29, 1843 ; September 26, 1850 ; September 28, 1860 ; September 28, 1882 ; and September 26, 1889.

ARTICLE I.

THERE shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese on the last Wednesday in September in each year, in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being ; or, in case of his inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee. In the event of the prevalence of any epidemic disease, or for other sufficient cause occurring after the designation of the place of the meeting of the Annual Convention, the Bishop, or in case of his inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee may appoint another place for the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop shall have power to call Special Conventions, when he may judge it conducive to the good of the Church ; and shall do so when applied to for that purpose by the Standing Committee ; and in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall have power to call a Special Convention.

ARTICLE III.

The Convention shall be composed of the officiating Ministers regularly received into this Diocese, and settled in some Church which is in union with this Convention ; and of Lay Members, consisting of not exceeding three Delegates from each Church, to be chosen by the Vestry or Congregation ; and Clergymen employed as Missionaries under the direction of this Convention, and Clergymen engaged as Professors or Instructors of youth in any College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, and Clergymen engaged as Superintendents or Chaplains in any incorporated Charitable Institution, may be members of the Convention. No Clergyman, however, shall have a right to a seat in the Convention, unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for the period of six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with prayers and a sermon ; and the preacher shall be nominated by the Bishop, or in case of his inability to act, or a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention ; but in case of a vacancy, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Clergy.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen, upon the assembling of the Annual Convention, from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relative to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate in one body ; and in voting, the Clergy shall vote by individuals, and the Laity by Congregations ; and when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention, prior to the last Wednesday in September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, the Delegate or Delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to a vote for each Church or Chapel ; and a majority of votes of the two orders jointly shall be decisive ; but if in any case it be required by five votes, the two orders shall vote separately in the manner aforesaid, and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision. In the case of electing a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately, agreeably to the mode last prescribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows : A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing and considered in the Convention ; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention, and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

CANON I.

A List to be made of Ministers in the Diocese.

Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then the Standing Committee of the Diocese, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures or Parishes, or Stations as Missionaries, or of the Colleges, Academies, or other Seminaries or incorporated Charitable Institutions in which they are engaged ; or, in regard to those who are not engaged in Parishes, Missions, or Institutions of learning, as above, their places of residence only ; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry shall have a place on the said list. Such list shall be recorded by the Secretary of the Convention in a book to be kept for that purpose, and be prefixed to the Journal.

CANON II.

Of the Members of the Convention and the Evidence of their Rights to Seats.

SEC. 1. A list of the names of all Clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention, under Article III. of the Constitution, shall be prepared by the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then by the Standing Committee. Said list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and shall be presumptive evidence of a right to a seat of all those whose names appear thereon.

SEC. 2. In case the right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention shall be disputed or claimed, it shall be determined according to the provision of the third Article of the Constitution by the Convention itself.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Convention shall record in a book, to be provided by him, and kept in accordance with the Canon of the General Convention, entitled "General Regulations of Ministers and their Duties," all certificates that shall be transmitted to him in accordance with said Canon.

In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Clergyman who shall have been elected to any Church or Parish in this Diocese, after the passage of this Canon, the evidence of settlement shall consist in the said record ; or in the production to the Convention of the certificate required by this Section, to be recorded as aforesaid, together with a certificate of the Bishop or of the Standing Committee, of his or their being satisfied that the person so chosen is a qualified Minister of this Church.

SEC. 4. Every Minister who may be received into this Diocese shall procure from the Bishop, or, in case of his disability or inability to act, from a majority of the clerical members of the Standing Committee, duly convened, a certificate that he has been received into this Diocese in compliance with the Canon of the General Convention. And before he shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, he shall transmit such certificate to the Secretary, to be recorded in the book mentioned in the preceding Section. And in case of the contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Minister who may be received into this Diocese, the production of such record, or of such certificate, or of the Secretary's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the same, shall be presumptive evidence of regular admission, and the certificate, if not previously recorded, shall thereupon be recorded by the Secretary in the said book.

SEC. 5. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being employed as a Missionary under the direction of this Convention, the evidence of such employment shall consist in the written certificate of the Bishop ; or, in case of a vacancy of the Episcopate, or of the inability or disability of the Bishop, in the written certificate of the Chairman of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

SEC. 6. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being engaged as a Professor or Instructor of Youth in a College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, the evidence of his connection with such College, Academy, or Seminary shall consist in the written certificate of the President or Secretary of such Corporation that he is so employed.

SEC. 7. (I.) Lay Delegates from Churches having Vestries shall be appointed by the Vestry, at a regular meeting, held according to law.

(II.) The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Rector of the Church and by the Clerk of the Vestry. If there be no Rector, or if the appointment shall have been made at any legal Vestry meeting held in his absence, then such certificate shall state that fact, and shall be signed by the Warden who presides at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry. The certificate must show upon its face that the appointment has been made in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons, and shall certify that the Delegate is a Lay member, entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

(III.) The evidence of appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having no Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Minister of such Church, or by the officer who presides at the meeting of the congregation by which he was appointed, and also by the Clerk or Secretary of such meeting. The certificate shall state the time and place of the election, and shall certify that the person appointed has been duly chosen by such Church or Congregation as a Lay Delegate; that he is a Lay member of such Church or Congregation, and has been such member for at least twelve months next preceding the time of his appointment, and that the election was held in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons.

(IV.) No other certificate or evidence of appointment of any Lay Delegate than such as is above required shall be allowed or received.

SEC. 8. No Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, unless he be entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

SEC. 9. A copy of the seventh and eighth sections of this Canon shall be transmitted annually by the Secretary of the Convention to every Church in this Diocese in union with the Convention, together with a blank printed form of certificate of appointment of Lay Delegates, and the notice which he is required by the Constitution to give of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the Clerks of the Vestries of the Parishes which have been admitted into union with this Convention, immediately after the appointment of the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Convention, to certify their election to the Secretary of the Convention in the form prescribed by Sections 7 and 8 of this Canon. From the certificates thus received, the Secretary shall prepare a list of Lay Delegates for use in the organization of the Convention.

SEC. 11. The presence of at least thirty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least thirty congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business—except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. 12. If the President ex officio of the Convention is not present at its opening, the Secretary of the Convention shall call to order the members present, when the senior presbyter present entitled to a seat in the Convention shall take the chair, and shall preside until a President be elected, as provided by Article V. of the Constitution.

SEC. 13. The Secretary of the Convention, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

SEC. 14. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him, in pursuance of Section 10 of this Canon. The President shall then appoint a committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

SEC. 15. A quorum, which shall consist of thirty Clergymen and Delegates from thirty Congregations, being present, the President, ex officio, if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If he be absent, or unable to act, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided in Article V. of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The President, being elected, shall declare the Convention organized for business.

SEC. 16. The Convention shall then proceed to the election of a Secretary and Treasurer of the Convention, by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The Secretary shall appoint two assistants, and announce their names to the Convention.

SEC. 17. The existing Rules of Order, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceedings for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose ; and the said Rules of Order, except such of them as prescribe the mode of altering the same, shall regulate the proceedings after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

CANON III.

Of the Call of the Convention.

Unless it be otherwise directed by the Convention, the mode of giving notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be by an advertisement of the time and place of such meeting, signed by the Secretary, and published in three of the public papers, or Church journals, printed in the Diocese of New York. Whenever, under the provisions of the Constitution, a Special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, in the notice thereof, to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church as a Parish into Union with the Church in this Diocese and Maintaining such Union.

SEC. 1. Every Church or Congregation desiring admission as a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall present a written application therefor to the Convention, together with a copy of the Resolution of the Vestry or of the Congregation authorizing such application ; in which resolution the said Church, by its Vestry or Congregation, shall agree to abide by, and conform to and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders, and regulations of the Convention ; which copy shall be duly certified by the presiding officer of the Vestry, or of the meeting of the Congregation at which the resolution was adopted, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry or Secretary of the meeting ; and shall be authenticated by the seal of the corporation.

The said application shall also be accompanied by the Certificate of Incorporation of the Church, duly recorded, or a copy thereof, certified by the officer whose duty it may be to record or to file the same ; and also by a Certificate of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence, or of his inability or disability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, of the Standing Committee, that he or they approve of the Incorporation of said Church, and that such Church, in his or their judgment, is duly established.

Every Church or Congregation applying for admission shall produce satisfactory evidence that not less than twenty-five persons, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least one year preceding such application, attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

The Certificate of Incorporation of every Church incorporated under any Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, save the General Act of April 5, 1813, and the Amendments thereto, shall declare upon its face that the Church or Congregation is a Protestant Episcopal Church, and that it is forever to continue such, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York ; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention to prepare and furnish blanks for the Certificate of Incorporation of Parishes, which shall embody the above provision.

SEC. 2. (I.) No application for the admission of a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall be considered or acted upon at any meeting of the Convention, unless the same has been transmitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least forty days before the meeting of the Convention.

(II.) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention, at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention, to deliver to a Committee, to be annually appointed (to be called the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches), all applications for admission into union which shall have been received by him ; to be by such Committee examined, considered, and reported upon to the Convention.

SEC. 3. Whenever any Parish in union with this Convention shall neglect for three years in succession to make a Parochial Report, no missionary report being made on its behalf, and shall not, during the same period, have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the ecclesiastical authority to have the services of a Missionary, such Parish shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have a right to send a Delegate or Delegates to the same.

The Bishop shall report such Parish to the Convention in his Annual Address.

Such Parish, however, may be re-admitted, upon application to the Convention, accompanied by a report of its condition, and on such terms as shall appear just ; such re-admission to take effect from and after the rising of the Convention consenting to such admission.

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

SEC. 1. In addition to the constitutional provisions concerning the Secretary, it is hereby declared that this officer shall be chosen by ballot after viva voce nominations of the Candidates, and shall continue in office until a new election is made.

SEC. 2. He shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal of the Convention ; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange.

SEC. 3. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in the Canons of the General Convention, a certificate, to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary, together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary ; and also a like certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

SEC. 4. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the third section of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 5. Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon one of the Assistant Secretaries in the order of their appointment, if there be one ; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Convention.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer of the Convention, who shall remain in office until the next stated Convention, and until a successor is appointed. It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, and of which the collection and distribution shall not be otherwise regulated.

SEC. 2. His accounts shall be rendered annually to the Convention, and shall be examined by a Committee acting under its authority.

SEC. 3. In case of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer, it shall be supplied by an appointment to be made by the Standing Committee ; and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an appointment is made by the Convention.

CANON VII.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

SEC. 1. Every Minister in charge of a Parish in this Diocese shall keep a Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, Communicants, Marriages, and Funerals within his Cure.

SEC. 2. The record shall specify the name and time of birth of each child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors ; the name of each adult baptized ; the name of each person confirmed ; the names of the parties married, with the names of the witness or witnesses required by the civil law ; the name of each person buried ; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose, belonging to the Vestry of each Church ; which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the records of the Church.

The list of Communicants shall embrace all within his Cure as nearly as can be ascertained, and he shall also keep a list of the families and adult persons in his Cure, as far as practicable.

SEC. 3. Every Minister of this Church shall present, or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, when there is no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages, and Funerals ; and of the number of Communicants in his Parish or Church, and of all other matters that may throw light on the state of the same.

SEC. 4. In every case where a Parish is without a Minister, the Register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by some person appointed by the Vestry for that purpose ; and the annual Parochial Reports shall be presented or forwarded to the Bishop by the Wardens of the Parish.

SEC. 5. Upon the dissolution of a Parish the Register, provided for by this Canon, shall immediately become the property of the Diocese, and the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention shall cause the said Register to be deposited with the Bishop, to be under his care for the legitimate purposes thereof.

CANON VIII.

Of Preparing a Report on the State of the Church.

CANON IX.

Concerning Elections.

SEC. 1. Elections by ballot, when required by these Canons, may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the Convention.

* Canon XX., Sec. 5, Title I.

And when an election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order shall be necessary to a valid election.

SEC. 2. The mode of conducting the nominations and elections of the Standing Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and Deputies to the Federate Council, shall be as follows :

Any member of the Convention may send to the Secretary, in writing, on or before the first day of the meeting thereof, nominations, signed by himself, for the Standing Committee, for Clerical and Lay Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and for members of the Federate Council. All names so sent in shall be reported to the Convention by the Secretary, at the beginning of the second day's session, in the form of a ballot, on which the names shall be arranged in alphabetical order. After each list of nominations as many blank spaces shall be left as there are vacancies to be filled. These blanks may be filled by any voter. The voter shall mark an X at the right of the name of each person for whom he votes. On the first ballot these ballots only shall be used, and also in all subsequent ballots, except when otherwise ordered by the Convention. No ballot shall be counted on which more names are marked than there are vacancies to be filled, and the number of vacancies to be filled shall be printed on each ballot.

The Secretary shall provide a board, to be hung up in a conspicuous place, near the entrance to the Convention, on which shall be posted the nominations so received, and also the names of the present members of the Standing Committee, Deputies and Provisional Deputies to General Convention, and Deputies to the Federate Council; and these names shall also be printed on the back of the ballot provided by the Secretary.

CANON X.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

SEC. 1. The Convention shall, at each second regular annual meeting next succeeding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention. It shall also elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen, as Provisional Deputies, to act in the case hereinafter mentioned ; which Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their respective stations until successors are appointed, and shall be Deputies, or Provisional Deputies, for any General Convention which may be held during their continuance in office.

SEC. 2. Should a vacancy occur by resignation, removal from the Diocese, death, or otherwise, among the Deputies or Provisional Deputies, between the stated times of election, the vacancy shall be supplied by any Convention, during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies elect to signify to the Bishop, at least two days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment, and their intention to perform its duties ; in default of which the Bishop shall designate, from the list of Provisional Deputies, so many as may be necessary to insure, as far as practicable, a full representation of the Diocese. And the Bishop shall in like manner designate from the same list of Provisional Deputies one or more, as the case may be, to supply any deficiency in the representation of this Diocese which may in any way occur. And the person or persons so designated by the Bishop, being furnished with his certificate thereof, shall have all the power and authority of Deputies duly elected by the Convention.

SEC. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the Standing Committee.

And in case of a vacancy by death or otherwise among the Deputies so elected, such vacancy shall be filled by the Bishop.

CANON XII.

Of the Standing Committee.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention a Standing Committee shall be elected by ballot, to consist of four Clergymen and four Laymen. Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical members and Lay members of the Committee.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability or disability of the Bishop, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to, or enjoined upon, the Clerical members of said Committee; in which cases such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical members alone; provided, that no sentence shall be pronounced on a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

SEC. 3. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman shall be preserved by the Standing Committee, and for that purpose shall, after a final decision, be delivered to their Secretary.

SEC. 4. Should a stated Convention, from any cause, not be held at the appointed time, or if such Convention should be held, but no election be made, pursuant to Section 1 of this Canon, then the last Standing Committee elected shall continue to perform the duties of the office until a new election takes place.

CANON XIII.

Of Vacant Parishes.

SEC. 1. Whenever a Parish becomes vacant by the resignation or decease of the incumbent, or otherwise, due notice of the same shall be given by the Clerk of the Vestry or Trustees to the Ordinary, who, with the concurrence of the authorities of the Parish, shall take such measures as he may deem expedient for the temporary maintenance of religious services in such Parish.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Vestry or Trustees of such vacant Parish to provide for the compensation of the Minister appointed under the preceding section.

But such action of the Standing Committee shall not be taken until previous notice has been given, and due proof thereof furnished the Committee by the parties moving therefor, to the Rectors and Vestries of the three Churches or Congregations whose places of public worship shall be nearest to the site proposed for the new place of worship, nor until at least one month has been allowed such Rectors and Vestries to present any objections they may have.

In places where the Church is not established, the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall be sufficient for the formation of a new parish.

CANON XV.

Of the Episcopal Fund.

SEC. 1. The fund for the support of the Episcopate in this Diocese, now provided, together with that which may be hereafter contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof, shall be intrusted to the corporation entitled "The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund for the Diocese of New York," incorporated by an Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, passed May 14, 1845. The Trustees composing said corporation shall be five in number, who shall be appointed by and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention, and all vacancies occurring in their number shall be filled by the Convention.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of every Rector or Minister having charge of a congregation in this Diocese to cause an annual collection or contribution to be made by said congregation in aid of the fund for the support of the Episcopate; and in the case of a vacant parish, this duty shall devolve on the Wardens and Vestrymen. The amount of each annual collection or contribution shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and shall be reported by the Trustees to the Convention at the next stated meeting thereof, after such collection or contribution shall have been made, and shall be entered on its Journals.

SEC. 3. So long as the income of the fund is inadequate to the support of the Episcopate, and an annual assessment shall be made, under the authority of the Convention, for supplying the deficiency therein, the payment of such assessment by a Parish shall be considered as in lieu of the collection enjoined by Section 2 of this Canon.

SEC. 4. All moneys belonging to the said fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security of real estate, or invested in stocks of the United States, or of any of the States, or of the City of New York, at their discretion, and also in such other securities as may be recommended unanimously by the Trustees and approved by a vote of the Convention. And all securities and investments shall be taken or made in their corporate name above mentioned, and they shall have power, from time to time, to change such investments. A statement exhibiting the condition of the said fund and securities, together with all receipts and disbursements, shall be reported to the Convention at every stated meeting thereof, signed by the Trustees, or a majority of them.

SEC. 2. The business of distributing all funds that may be raised under this Canon, for the education of young men for Holy Orders, is hereby committed to the incorporated society styled "The Protestant Episcopal Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York," which shall make a full annual report to the Convention of the application of all moneys paid into its treasury under the provisions of this Canon, or by the Treasurer of the Convention from any source.

SEC. 3. So far as relates to the offerings or contributions of Parishes within the City of New York, it is hereby declared that the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society and the New York Protestant Episcopal Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York are to be reckoned among the Church charities for which provision is to be made, so that each congregation in the City of New York shall make annual contributions to one of these societies.

It shall be the duty of each Archdeaconry [1] to search out the religious needs of its own district, and to conduct and provide for such Missionary Work as may be undertaken by it, within its own limits, and to apportion among the several Parishes the amount necessary to be raised for the same; [2] to nominate to the Bishop, for his appointment, all Missionaries and other agents of the Archdeaconry, and to fix their salaries; [3] to have full management of its funds; [4] to provide that careful statistics as to the population and condition of communities and the results of Missionary Work be collected and preserved.

It shall be his duty [1] to superintend all Missionary Work conducted by the Archdeaconry; [2] to have direction of all Itinerant Clergy and Associated Missions; [3] to make full and regular reports of the same to the Archdeaconry; and [4] in the absence of the Bishop to preside at all meetings.

CANON XIX.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy.

SEC. 1. Five lay Trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute a Board to be called the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

SEC. 2. Vacancies occurring in the number of the above-named five lay Trustees, by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to assume the management and care of the following funds :

3d. A fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired for the purpose of facilitating the effecting of Life Insurance by Clergymen of the Diocese, together with any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

SEC. 4. It shall be the further duty of the said Trustees to receive applications for relief or assistance from any persons entitled to receive aid from either of the funds above mentioned, and to apply such relief or assistance as follows :

1st. As to the fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations indicated in the report of the Special Committee made to the Annual Convention of 1841,* and subject also to such other

* “(a) Legacies and donations to be invested as a permanent fund ; the proceeds to be applied annually, if needed, under the direction of the Bishop and three lay Trustees, to be elected by the Convention at each stated meeting. If the whole or any part of the annual revenue of said fund be not needed, in any year, it might be considered thenceforth as part of the capital.

“(b) Another . . . source of income will be found, it is presumed, in annual contributions to be made by all the congregations in the Diocese, on some day previously notified.

“With regard to the limitations under which relief should be applied, your Committee are aware that much must be left to the discretion of the Trustees. . . . In regard to these limitations, the Committee would suggest :

“1. That relief should be confined to those whose circumstances are actually straitened, and who have been actively engaged in parochial or kindred labors during a large part of their ministerial lives.

“2. It should not be so administered as to supersede on the part of parishes the duty of making provision for the support of their pastor when too aged or rules and regulations as have since been adopted by this Convention, or as said Trustees, with the approbation of said Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

2d. As to the funds for the Widows and Children of Clergymen, and for facilitating the effecting of Life Insurance by Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations laid down by the regulations adopted by the Annual Convention of 1886, and subject also to such further rules and regulations as said Trustees, with the approbation of this Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

SEC. 5. A collection shall be made annually in every congregation in this Diocese, on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or on Christmas Day, or on the Sunday next before or next following either of those days.

This collection and all other contributions to these objects shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the said Board of Trustees.

All donations and legacies received by said Treasurer shall, in the absence of the special designation of one or other of the three funds, be apportioned equally among the said three funds. The annual collection, herein provided for, shall, in the absence of special designation of any portion thereof by the donors, be applied by said Trustees in such proportion as from time to time they shall deem best, to the fund for facilitating Life Insurance by Clergymen and to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen. The Treasurer shall keep a separate account of each of the said three funds, and all moneys not wanted for current use shall be invested and held in trust by the said Trustees.

SEC. 6. The said Trustees shall elect their own Chairman, Treasurer, and Secretary.

They shall meet at least twice in each year, and shall keep minutes of their proceedings, which shall be submitted to the Convention of the Diocese whenever called for.

infirm to continue his ministry ; and should therefore be confined, in the case of parish clergymen, to cases in which the parish has signified, through the Bishop, its inability or indisposition to make such provision to an adequate extent.

“3. It should not be extended to clergymen who have near relatives in affluent circumstances, unless there be satisfactory evidence that such relatives are unwilling to discharge the duty of providing for those of their own household.

“4. In deciding between conflicting claims, preference should be given cæteris paribus to those who have been longest employed within the Diocese in ministerial duty.”

CANON XX.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of this Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become "liable to presentment and trial," under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceeding in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz. :

SEC. 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offences of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place, and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever, from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offence or misconduct for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case, a majority of whom may make such examination ; and if there is in their opinion sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

SEC. 2. A presentment being made in any one of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as constitute an offence, may dismiss it ; or if it allege facts, some of which do and some of which do not constitute an offence, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop ; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a Board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time, and from place to place (but always within this Diocese), as they shall think necessary.

SEC. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

SEC. 4. If, at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time; and if, after one adjournment or more, it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

SEC. 5. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial, as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying them.

SEC. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having had due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn to another day.

SEC. 7. When the Board proceed to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced, which evidence shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer, authorized by law to administer oaths, may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses that they will testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If, on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges, as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

SEC. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witnesses cannot be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a Commissary to take the testimony of any such witness. Such Commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every additional twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness, and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the Commissary, and enclosed under his seal, and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such Commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

SEC. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare, in a writing signed by them, or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges, respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced ; and a copy of such decision shall be, without delay, communicated to the accused, and the original decision, together with the evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board ; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused, and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be open at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

SEC. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the facts shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper.

SEC. 11. The defendant may have the privilege of appearing by counsel ; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have also the like privilege.

CANON XXI.

Concerning Alterations in the Canons and Additions thereto.

No proposed alteration of, or addition to, the Canons shall hereafter be considered by the Convention, unless at least one day's previous notice be given thereof in open Convention ; nor, unless by unanimous consent, until such alteration or addition shall have been referred to and reported upon by a Committee of at least two Presbyters and two Laymen. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted, during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the votes of both orders, taken separately, shall not concur therein ; but in such case the same (unless negatived by a majority of the members present) shall lie over for consideration until the next annual meeting of the Convention.

CANON XXII.

Repealing Former Canons.

All former Canons of this Convention are hereby repealed.

X. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and, when required, reduced to writing.

XI. When a question is before the Convention, no motion, except as hereinafter provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table—to postpone it indefinitely—to postpone it to a certain time—to commit—or to amend it ; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a motion to strike out the word “ Resolved ” shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the resolution.

XII. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made ; no after-amendment to such second amendment shall be in order. But when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

XV. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XVI. If a question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XVII. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XVIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XIX. The vote shall be taken by ayes and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XX. In taking the vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XXI. A question, being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the first decision. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXIII. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a resolution, or resolutions, for its consideration.

XXIV. When a member is called to order by the President, or by another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the President; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal, no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXV. The prescribed order of business shall not be departed from, nor shall any rule of order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XXVI. The majority of a quorum shall always be required to elect any officer.
